

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

BY THE

BISHOP OF LINCOLN.

---o---

THE signs of the times show that the Old Testament will be the battle-field of the Evil One against Christianity. In order that they who hold the Faith may gain the victory by a successful defence of GoD's Holy Word, they must learn, and teach others, to see Christ, the Eternal Word, speaking in the Old Testament concerning Himself, as afterwards fully revealed in the New Testament. All helps to the bringing home of this truth to the minds and hearts of the rising generation are of great value; and because the present work appears to me to be very likely to be serviceable in this direction, I cordially recommend it to favourable acceptance in this diocese.

C. LINCOLN.

PREFACE.

THESE 'Notes' were originally written for the teachers in a Sunday school, that they might be helped in the preparation of the children in their classes, for a series of catechisings on the book of Genesis, on the Sunday afternoons during the Trinity season. The catechisings were limited to 26 of the chief events (being the number of the Sundays after Trinity); the 'Notes,' however, have now been extended, so as to embrace most of the events in Genesis.

Several considerations have induced the writer to think of giving these 'Notes' a wider circulation than was originally intended.

i. Many persons do not value the Old Testament as they ought: they think that the work of the Old Testament is done, now that Christ has come, and that it has no value for us, save as a mere history of the past, now that the New Testament has been given to us. The mystical interpretation of the Old Testament will arouse the attention of the mere casual reader of Holy Scripture, while it will fulfil one of its special objects in strengthening the faith of the devout reader, as, beneath the outward garb of true history, the various scenes of the great divine drama of the Incarnation are discovered to be rehearsed in the life of an individual, a family, or a nation.

ii. The love of allegory and mysticism is deeply implanted in the minds of men;—witness the steady sale year by year of allegorical books and mystical sermons; while every teacher who has attempted the teaching of mysticism to children, cannot fail to have noticed the delight with which they have listened, and the rapidity with which they have grasped the instruction given.

iii. The saintly author of the 'Christian Year' urges the teaching of the mystical meaning of Holy Scripture, even to those whom some would suppose to be least capable of appreciating it. Mr. Keble says: 'We need not fear to inure even poor unlearned persons, having the fear of God and leading good lives, with the ancient (mystical) mode of exposition. Humanly speaking, their habits of thought make them for the most part apter to receive it than persons of greater learning and refinement' (Tracts for the Times, No. 89, p. 136).

iv. The interest aroused by these catechisings (the subjects of which, with the passage and text, were always published beforehand in the Parish Magasine) was very striking, for not only did the parents of the children attend better than they had done previously, but also many of the young men and lads of the parish came regularly to church on the Sunday afternoons to listen.

These 'Notes' are not intended to be merely read through, but worked through carefully. The various texts referred to are not given in full, partly to keep down the size of the book, but chiefly in the hope that the reader will thus be induced to study each subject with an open Bible. A text from the New Testament is given at the head of each subject, as the key-note of the mystical meaning. If these subjects are used for catechising, the children should learn the text, and repeat it at the end of the catechising. These 'Notes' might form materials for a series of Bible instructions on Genesis. The Hymns referred to are Hymns Ancient and Modern, revised edition. The references to the Psalms are to the Prayer Book version, unless otherwise stated.

The writer of these 'Notes' desires to acknowledge very gratefully the help he has received from Notes on Genesis, by the late Rev. Isaac Williams; Types of Genesis, by the Rev. A. Jukes; an outline Scheme of Catechisings on Genesis, by his friend the Rev. D. Elsdale; and the Bishop of Lincoln's Commentary on Genesis.

May these 'Notes,' feeble and imperfect though they are, be blessed by GoD to the increase of the love and understanding of the wondrous things of His law!

PRAYER

BEFORE READING HOLY SCRIPTURE.

- V. Open Thou mine eyes.
  - R. That I may see the wondrous things of Thy law.

Blessed Lord, Who hast caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning, grant that we may in such wise hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that by patience, and comfort of Thy Holy Word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which Thou hast given us in our Saviour JESUS Christ. Amen.

Our Father, etc.

NOTES ON GENESIS.

Preliminary Remarks.

THE greatest event that has happened since time began is the Incarnation—GOD the Son being made Man.

Scrip. leads up to this at once, e.g. S. John i. 1, 14.

- " speaks of it as 'the eternal purpose' of GOD. Eph.
- " declares that the Creation was connected w.the Incarn.

  All things were created not only by Him but for Him. Col. i. 16; Rev. iv. 11.

The whole Bible may therefore be fitly called 'the Book of the Revelation of JESUS Christ.' Rev. i. 1.

The Old Test. records GOD's works in connection with this world and mankind in preparation for JESUS Christ.

New Test. reveals JESUS Christ Incarnate.

The Life and Death, Resurrection, etc. of Incarnate JESUS.

The effects of this with regard to Men in the Atonement, etc.

The extension of the Incarnation to Men by means of the Church and the Sacraments.

JESUS Christ is everywhere in Scripture. See S. Luke xxiv. 27, 44, 45.

Hence S. Augustine's Rule—'In order to understand and interpret the Old Test. aright, we must begin with the New; and if we meet with difficulties in the Old Test., let us consider them with reference to Christ, and if we see Him revealed in them, we have reason to think we have the solution of the difficulty.'

(3) made them all for Man.

Adore the loving care of GOD for man. S. Matt.

Only to be explained by the Incarnation—Man 'accepted in the Beloved.' Eph. i. 6; I Chron. xxix. 11.

Remember—

- Unselfishness—Gratitude in the use of GOD's creatures.
   Chron. xxix. 14.
- ii. Reverential care in the use of what GOD has made.
  I Tim. iv. 4.
- iii. The account to be given. Eccles. xi. 9. Collect, 5 S. a. Easter.

Hymn, 166 or 295.

The Creation of Man .- 'The First Adam.'

Read-Gen. i. 26-ii. 8: Text-S. John i. 1, 14.

The Creation of Man preceded by Consultation and Consent of the Three Divine Persons.

'Let us make Man.' Gen. i. 26.

At the Manifestation of the New Man (in Whom we are restored), i.e. the Baptism of JESUS, the Three Divine Persons are represented as consenting. S. Matt. iii. 16, 17.

So also at the Institution of Baptism, by which man is Regenerated. S. Matt. xxviii. 19.

at the Transfiguration, representing the Resurrection of the body. S. Matt. xvii. 5.

at the Manifestation of GOD to the individual: 'We will come,' etc. S. John xiv. 23.

The Pattern after which Man is made—God Himself.

Let US make Man in Our Image, after Our Likeness.' Gen. i. 26.

This not to be understood of external form. S. John iv. 24.

Various explanations suggested, but generally supposed in some way to point to the three parts of man—

The soul to own, the understanding to know, the will to love God.

'To be, to know, to will.' (S. Aug.)

'Spirit, soul, and body.' I Thess. v. 23.

This Pattern perfectly fulfilled in JESUS Christ—the 'Image of the Invisible God.' Col. i. 15.

The Matter of which Man is made—'Dust of the earth.' Gen. ii. 7; iii. 19.

The Manner in which life was given—by the breath of GoD. Gen.

(1) Animal life-for cp. Gen. vii. 22; Isa. ii. 22.

(2) Spiritual life or grace beyond other creatures; alluded to by Job in connection with knowledge. Job xxxiii. 4.

Cp. the act of JESUS after Resurrection—' He breathed on them.'
S. John xx. 22.

1st Adam a 'living soul.' Gen. ii. 7.
2nd Adam a quickening Spirit, i.e. able to impart Life to others.

The Nature of Man-partly spiritual, partly corporeal.

Hence a link between previous { angels, purely spiritual. creations. { creatures, ,, corporeal.

Man the 'Lord of creation.'

Dominion over all creatures on earth. Gen. i. 26, 28,

Ministered to by angels of heaven. Heb. i. 14.

(This lost by the Fall, yet regained and restored to us in JESUS. Ps. viii. 5, 6, applied by H. Spirit to Christ. Heb. ii. 8).

The Nothingness of Man in the presence of GoD. 'Dust of the ground.' Gen. ii. 7.

The Dignity of Man. Made in the Image of GOD. Gen. i. 27.

Restored ,, ,, Col. iii. 10.

The Value of Man, shown by the special care taken by GOD for Man's Creation, Redemption, Sanctification.

N.B.—The completion and perfection of God's Work implied by God's Rest.

Remember-

i. Humility, our claim to God's mercy. Gen. xviii. 27; Ps. ciii. 14.

. ii. Grateful love. Ps. cxxxix. 13.

iii. Care of GOD's work. S. Matt. xvi. 26.

iv. Imitation of GOD, as manifested in the Pattern Man, JESUS, S. Matt. xi. 29; xxii. 20, 21; for nothing but this fulfilment of GOD's will can really satisfy Man. Ps. xvii. 16. Collect, 4 S. a. Easter.

Hymn, 43.

The First Marriage.

Read-Gen. ii. 8, etc.: Text-Eph. v. 32.

Man's Home—Paradise, a garden prepared by GoD.

A special favour and dignity prepared for man after his creation. Gen. ii. 8; and cp. 2 Esdr. iii. 6.

Man's Occupation—tending the garden for God. Gen. ii. 15.

Cp. JESUS, the 'Gardener.' S. John xxi. 15.

Who tends and keeps the Vineyard (Garden) of the Church, and seeks for 'fruit' on the various 'trees.' Isa. v. 1; S. Luke xiii. 6.

Man's Companions—the creatures which GoD brought to him, and on which he exercised his reason and speech in naming them. Gen. ii. 19.

Yet these not sufficient for Man.

Man still 'alone' on earth in the knowledge and praise of his Creator.

So GoD would provide an 'helpmeet for him,' an 'help like unto himself.' Ecclus. xxxvi. 24.

N.B.—Deliberation and pause on the part of God before the creation of Woman, implying some special dignity and mystery about it.

The Bride—Eve.

Both prepared by God. Gen. i. 27;
The Bride—Eve.

Bride prepared by God. Gen. i. 27;

GOD caused a 'deep sleep' to fall on Adam (ii. 21).

Cp. deep sleep of JESUS on the Cross (Death, Cp. S. John xi. 11-15).

From his side' GOD took a 'rib,' part of himself (ii. 21), Cp. the Pierced Side of JESUS, and the Blood and Water—the two Sacraments of Life. S. John xix. 34.

And formed Woman ('builded,' see margin), expressing gradual work.

Cp. S. Paul's use of the word 'building' in speaking of the Church. Eph. ii. 21, 22.

Also cp. the Church coming down from GOD prepared as a Bride. Rev. xxi. 2.

The Name given—'Woman,' because taken out of 'Man.' Gen. ii. 23.

Cp. 'Christians,' so called from 'Christ.' 1 Cor. xii. 27; Acts xi. 26.

The Life of the Woman—not as Man, 'God breathed into,' etc.

Gen. ii. 7.

But derived from God indirectly through Man.

Cp. spiritual life given through the Human Nature of JESUS. S. John vi. 56, 57.

The Place of the First Marriage—a Garden. Gen. ii. 22; cp. S. John xix. 41.

The 'Father' at the First Marriage, to 'give away' the Bride—God. Gen. ii. 22.

Cp. our B. LORD's words of the Church—' they whom Thou hast given to Me.' S. John xvii. 24; vi. 44.

The 'Priest' at the First Marriage—God. Gen. i. 28.

Cp. the words in the Office for Holy Matrimony-from S. Matt. xix. 6—which assert that each Priest at each Marriage (lawfully contracted) acts for God.

The 'Mystery' of Marriage represents 'the Spiritual Marriage and Unity betwixt Christ and His Church' (Office for H. Matrimony). Eph. v. 32; cp. Rev. xxi. 9, 10; Jer. iii. 14.

(From which spiritual union are raised up spiritual children.)

The Obligations of Marriage.

(1) Self-Sacrifice. Gen. ii. 24.

JESUS did it—left His Father in Heaven, and His Mother, the Jewish Synagogue.

The Church must do it. Ps. xlv. 11, 12.

The individual seeking union with JESUS must do it. S. Luke xiv. 26.

(2) Loving care each for the other. Eph. v. 25, 28, 29; 1 S. Pet. iii. 7.

Therefore many events of the Old Test. find their true explanation as types

The Bible deals chiefly with this world, the place of the Incarnation; and mankind, the nature taken into union with God.

Angels spoken of in connection with their ministering to men who have been brought into union with the Incarnate Lord. Heb. i. 14.

Or setting us good examples of reverent worship. Isa. vi. 1-4.

The Time of Probation and Preparation from the Creation to the Incarnation, 4000 years—40 centuries.

The Preparations for Man.

Read-Gen. i. 1-26: Text-Col. i. 16.

Creation = making out of nothing.

Creation embraces 'all that is not God'—'All things visible and invisible.' (Nicene Creed.)

- (1) The Heaven—(a) the future scene of the work of the Incarnate GOD, JESUS, the Great High Priest. Heb. x. 24.
  - (b) the future home of man. S. John xiv. 3.
- (2) The Inhabitants of Heaven—the Angels. Ps. xxxiii. 6.
  Who should (a) minister to the GOD Man and His members on earth. Heb. i. 14.
  - (b) be the companions of men in the worship of the God Man in heaven.

These were created before the earth. Job xxxviii. 4, 7.

(3) The Earth—the place of the Incarnation.

The Time of Oreation—6 days—these may be long or short periods, there is nothing to limit them either way. 2 S. Pet. iii. 8.

The Agent of Creation—GoD—the Father. Isa. xlii. 5; Acts iv. 24.

the Son. S. John i. 4; Eph. iii. 9;
Heb. i. 2.

the H. Spirit. Gen. i. 2; Ps. civ. 30.

The Order of Creation—The first 3 days preparatory for the following 3.

1st day, Light, . . . . . for 4th day, Sun, Moon, etc. 2d , Waters and Heavens, ,, 5th ,, Fish and Fowl.

3d " Earth and Herbs, . " 6th " Cattle and Man.

N.B.—Water—the first element represented as 'bringing forth.'

Cp. water in the new creation, the element used as the channel of the new life. S. John iii. 5.

Sun, moon, etc., not sources but channels—means—of light to man, appointed by GoD for this special purpose.

GoD is independent of these—it was light for 3 days without them; but man is not. e.g. Josh. x. 12.

So with Sacraments—means of grace—of which these are types:

GOD is independent of them; man is tied to them. Acts x. 44, 47.

Blessing first pronounced on 5th day, so Christ ascended on 5th day in the act of blessing. S. Luke xxiv. 51.

The wonderful Preparations made for Man—the future 'Temple of God.' 1 Cor. iii. 16; vi. 19.

GOD at work for 6 days.

Everything prepared.

On Earth-Home.

Food. Gen. i. 29.

Pleasure—the beauties of creation.

Occupation-work for God. Gen. ii. 8,

Guardians-angels.

In Heaven—A home, companions, and work for eternity.

Rev. iv. 8.

Cp. (1) The great preparations made by King David for his son to build the Temple (GoD's House). I Chron. xxii. 1-6.

(2) GOD's preparation of mankind for 4000 years for the Incarnation of JESUS. Col. ii. 9; S. John ii. 19, 21.

GOD (1) made all things out of nothing.

Adore the power of God. 2 Macc. vii. 28.

(2) made them all good, i.e. suited to their end and purpose, both individually and collectively.

Adore the wisdom of GoD. Ps. civ. 24.

Bride, the Church—'I know thy works.' Rev. ii. 2, 9, 13, 19; iii. 1, 8, 15.

And His promise to protect her from the 'gates of Hell.' S. Matt. xvi. 18.

The Place of the Fall—a Garden.

The Place of the Atonement—a Garden. S. John xix. 41.

Results of the Fall.

Shame—'naked,' body and soul—robe of 'original righteousness' gone.

Guilty fear, which made them try to hide from God. S. John iii. 20; cp. Rev. vi. 16, 17.

Cp. the conscious innocence and courage of the Second Adam coming forth from among the trees of the garden—'Whom seek ye?' S. John xviii. 4.

GOD teaches the need of Self-Examination and Confession—
'Where?' 'Who?' 'Hast?' 'What?' Man shrinks from it.

Adam blames God rather than himself—'The Woman whom Thou gavest,' etc. (ver. 12).

Eve blames GOD rather than herself—'The Serpent' (which GOD made) 'beguiled me' (ver. 13).

Cp. the Penitent Prodigal, accusing self, and coming back to his Father. S. Luke xv. 18.

The Sentence.—The Serpent—Cursed.

The Woman—Subjection to Man—life of sorrow, suffering, etc.

The Man-Ground cursed for Man's sake.

Sorrow.

Toil.

Food—herb of field, instead of trees, etc. of Paradise.

Death-'unto dust shalt thou return.'

Paradise Lost-Man driven out, a punishment for disobedience.

Paradise Regained—by the obedience of the Second Adam. S. Luke xxiii. 42.

The Tree of Life—Man removed from this, lest he should eat of it in his fallen state.

Restored to Man in the Cross of JESUS, the fruit of which new Tree of Life Man must now receive. S. John vi. 53.

The Promised Absolution and Deliverance.

The Fall drew from GOD a fresh Revelation of 'the eternal purpose which He purposed in Christ JESUS.' Eph. iii. 11.

'Her seed . . . shall bruise thy head.' Gen. iii. 15.

'Thou shalt bruise His heel'—the suffering life of the Incarnate Saviour foretold.

The Tempter used the Woman as the instrument for the Fall of Man.

GOD would use the Woman as the instrument for the Restoration of Man.

Remember—Satan is continually trying to make us Fall. -1 S. Pet. v. 8.

We know not in what form his temptation will come, e.g. S. Matt. xvi. 23.

i. Our Warning-the First Adam.

ii. Our Example—the Second Adam. S. John xiv. 30.

iii. Our Help—'I am with you,' etc. S. Matt. xxviii, 20; Rom. viii. 31.

Thank GOD for our Restoration in His Son JESUS Christ.

Collect, 'O GOD, Whose nature and property,' etc. Hymn, 172.

The Kirst Martyr; or, 'The Good Shepherd.'

Read-Gen. iv. 1-16: Text-S. John x. 11.

The First Children—born after the Fall.

Therefore not like Adam originally, 'in the image and likeness of GoD,' but 'in his own image.' Gen. v. 3.

i.e. in a fallen, sinful state. Job. xiv. 4; Ps. li. 5.

Their Names—(1) Cain='possession.' Gen. iv. 1. Probably Eve hoped to see the promise (iii. 15) fulfilled in him. How often a mother's hopes are disappointed!

Cp. B. V. Mary's 'hopes' about her Divine Child. S. Luke ii, 19.

(2) Abel='weakness.' Cp. I Cor. i. 27.

Their Occupations-Abel, 'keeper of sheep.'

Shepherds of Scripture — Abraham, Jacob, David, JESUS. S. John x. 14; I S. Pet. ii. 25.

Cain, 'a tiller of the ground.' Nothing in his occupation which should necessarily hinder him from serving God. Cp. Gen. iii. 15 and S. John xx. 15.

A Family Feud.—Envy of Cain for his brother.

Cp. 'envy' of the Jews for JESUS. S. Matt. xxvii. 18.

The cause—God's acceptance of Abel and his offering (iv. 4). Cp. S. Matt. iii. 17; and the accusation, S. John xix. 7.

Cain's Offering—'fruits of the ground;' not the first or the best, Ex. xxii. 29; and above all no blood. Heb. ix. 22.

Abel's Offering—'firstlings of the flock, and the fat thereof;' the best.

[Probably both brought their offering to Adam (the father, and therefore the Priest of the family in Patriarchal times, cp. Job i. 5) at some special time and to some special place.]

Read-Gen. xi. 1-10: Text-Acts iv. 32.

The World of Mankind after the Flood.

Typ. mankind after 'the Regeneration.' S. Matt. xix. 28. i.e. the Church of JESUS Christ.

The Unity of this Human Family.

'The whole earth was of one language and of one speech.'

The Beginning of Troubles—Nimrod (= Rebel), the first Monarch.

Gen. x. 8, 9.

usurped power over others. maintained it by evil means.

He broke through GoD's plan of paternal and family government, and claimed it for himself.

In his kingdom began to be builded the Tower of Babel.

The sin of this act hidden from the builders by their self-deception.

They thought they had good intentions and objects in view.

(1) To 'reach heaven' (ver. 4).

(2) To preserve unity—'lest we be scattered abroad' (ver. 4).

But there was Pride at the bottom—' let us make us a name' (ver. 4).

And Self-will—Human deliberation instead of Divine guidance—'they said one to another' (ver. 3).

Imitation of GOD—in His words—'Let us make' (ver. 3).
in His works—'they builded' (ver. 6).
Cp. Gen. i. 26, 27; Isa. xiv. 14.

N.B.—God's deliberation and examination before Punishment (ver. 6, 7). Cp. Gen. iii. 9; iv. 6, 9.

The Punishment—Confusion of tongues—misunderstandings—dispersion—breaking up of the one body of mankind into different languages.

All this a Type of the Church of JESUS Christ.

- At Pentecost—the restoration of unity, in the mystical Body of JESUS Christ, by the coming of the Holy Ghost. I Cor. xii. 13.
- The Common Bond and Expression of Unity—one Gospel preached, and one Faith expressed, in all the different languages of the world. Acts ii. 6, 11.

And 'one Baptism' received. Eph. iv. 4-7.

- The Preservation of this Unity—the desire and prayer of JESUS. S. John xvii. 21.
- The Beginning of Troubles in the Church—departure from GoD's plan of Patriarchal government—each Bishop ruling his Diocese—by the rise of 'Lords over GoD's heritage.' 1 S. Pet. v. 3.

Claiming universal dominion—first Monarch within the Church.

[Zosimus, A.D. 417—1st Bishop of Rome who claimed to inherit from S. Peter a Divine authority equal to that of S. Peter.

Boniface III., A.D. 607—1st Bishop of Rome who formally usurped 'supremacy.']

From this has been gradually developed the system of the Church of Rome.

Collect, 'Prayer for Unity,' in special office for Queen's Accession.

Hymn, 275.

The Call of Abraham.

Read-Gen. xi. 27-xii. 11: Text-Heb. xiii. 14.

New Era—The world once more full of sin; GOD would not send another Flood (Gen. ix. 11), but chose one Family to be a living Ark in the world—a witness to the world by faith and obedience, to prepare the way for Christ, who would build the Ark of 'the Church' for all nations.

Hence history now (xi. 10) narrows down to the one chosen seed—the family from which the Incarnate God should come.

Shem . . . Nahor, Terah, Abram.

Abram—the son of Terah.

Abram's Wife—Sarai—supposed by some to be the same as 'Iscah' (xi. 29), and so Abram's niece—described as 'the daughter of Abram's father, but not the daughter of his mother' (Gen. xx. 12), i.e. Abram's half-sister

(The strict laws about intermarriages not yet given.)

Abram's Home—Ur of the Chaldees. Gen. xi. 31.

The Call of Abram.

Note the threefold sacrifice required of Abram at his call—country, kindred, father's house. Gen. xii. 1.

And see the gradual process of 'separation' by which GOD detaches him from these.

First—'From thy country'—Abram obeyed this at once. Gen. xi. 31.

But the 'separation' was not complete according to GoD's will, for his father went with him—probably would not consent to part with his son.

Contrast GOD the Father sending forth His Eternal Son at the Incarnation. S. John iii. 16.

Illustration.—Story of Bishop Patteson and his father (Life of Patteson, vol. i. p. 92).

Evidently the father's going with Abram was the father's act, not Abram's, for Scrip. says, 'Terah took Abram his son,' not 'Abram took his father' (xi. 31).

The father's act kept back his son from what GoD intended for him.

Abram did not reach Canaan so long as his father was with him, but stayed at Haran (xi. 31).

N.B .- The patience of Abram.

Obeying GOD's special call as far as he could consistently with the previous obedience due to GOD of Filial obedience—leaving himself in GOD's hands, confident that He knew his 'home difficulties,' and in time would make his way clear.

Aster some time 'Terah died in Haran' (xi. 32).

i.e. GOD took Abram's father from him, and then sent a fresh call to Abram.

The Second Call of Abram. Acts vii. 2, 4; Gen. xii. 1—'from thy father's house.'

Abram obeyed with unquestioning obedience—'he went out.'
with implicit trust in GoD — 'not knowing whither he went.' Heb. xi. 8.

Cp. JESUS, leaving His country, kindred, and Father's Home
—i.e. Heaven and the Father—to be a 'stranger' upon earth. S. Matt. xxv. 35, 43.

Also in His Incarnate Life—leaving the B. V. M. and S. Joseph (S. Luke ii. 49), and Nazareth, kindred, etc., to be 'homeless.' S. Luke ix. 58.

Still with Abram the 'separation' was not complete, for one of his kindred went with him—'Abram took Lot,' his nephew (xii. 5).

Lot had earthly desires and longings, i.e. chose the plain of Jordan because it was well watered—but very wicked (xiii. 10-14).

Eventually God brought about Abram's separation from Lot (xiii. 6), and so God's will was fulfilled, and Abram separated from 'country, kindred, and father's house.'

The Rewards of Obedience and Self-sacrifice.

(1) The Vision of GOD (xii. 7).

First recorded manifestation of GoD to man. Hitherto GoD is described as having 'called,' 'said,' etc. (iii. 9, iv. 6, etc.).

  - (c) 'In thee shall all families of the earth be blessed' (xii. 3).
    - 'In thee,' i.e. in the Human Nature of Christ—thy
- N.B.—This manifestation of GOD took place at Sichem, where Christ first revealed Himself as the Messiah—the promised Seed. S. John iv. 5, 25, 26.
- These promises drew from Abram a fresh revelation of-
  - (1) His faith—He believed God, though his wife was barren (xi. 30), and the land was possessed by the Canaanites (xii. 6).

(2) His religious courage—' He built an altar' to GOD. Made public profession of his religious belief in a heathen land.

Abram's Abode—a ' Tent'—sign of pilgrim life (xi. 9).

Remember-i. GOD calls us-

Collectively to be holy Christians. 1 Cor. i. 2.

This must be realized and felt by each individual. Prov. xxiii. 26.

Individually—the special 'vocation' of each, 'that state of life unto which it shall please GOD to call me.' (Ch. Cat.)

e.g. S. Matt. iv. 18-23; xix. 21, 22.

ii. The Call demands-

- (1) Trusting obedience. S. Matt. iv. 20.
- (2) Self-sacrifice. S. Matt. iv. 23; xvi. 24; S. Luke xiv. 26.
- (3) Patience in carrying out GoD's will. If it is GoD's call, and GoD's will, He will in good time 'make His way plain before thy face.' Ps. v. 8.

Abram in Egypt: 'Trust in God.'

Read-Gen. xii. 10, etc.: Text-1 S. Pet. iv. 19.

Abram in the Land of Promise.

- ▲ Famine in Egypt—sent by GoD.
  - As a trial of Abran's faith in GoD's promise.
     For it caused Abram's removal from the Land of Promise.
  - (2) As a trial of Abram's religious stedfastness.
    For he went into a land of idolatry and licentiousness.

The trial brought with it a double danger-

To Abram-of loss of life.

To Sarai-of loss of husband and protector.

of loss of chastity.

- Abram's Plan—(1) He told the truth—'she is my sister' (xii. 13).
  - (a) i.e. 'daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother.' Gen. xx. 12.
  - (b) or, if Sarai was the same as 'Iscah' (xi. 29), then 'sister' used in the general way of Scrip. for cousins, etc., e.g. S. Matt. xii. 46.
  - (2) He kept back part of the truth. .

He did not say, 'She is my wife,' not being asked about it.

Popular interpretation of Abram's action.

Through fear he denied his wife, and so committed sin.

- N.B.—Candour of Scrip. not concealing the falls and weaknesses of the greatest characters, for our warning and instruction.
- *But when there is another explanation, why not abide by it, instead of giving blame without cause, since there is no proof that Abram told a lie from fear?' (S. Augustine c. Faust. Bk. xxii. c. 34, Clark's Transln., p. 430.)

Explanation of Abram's line of Action.

- (1) We must help ourselves in any difficulty, as far as lies in our power, if we wish GoD to help us.
  - e.g. our B. Lord's example. S. Matt. ii. 14; S. John vii. 10, 30.

His advice to Apostles. S. Matt. xii. 23.

- S. Paul's conduct. Acts ix. 25; xxii. 29; xxiii. 6.
- (2) We must keep others from sin as far as we can consistently do so.
  - If Abram said, 'She is my wife,' they would probably commit double sin—murder of Abram, and violation of Sarai.
  - Abram did what he could to keep them from the sin of murder.
    - And then trusted to GoD to preserve the chastity of Sarai.

GOD interfered in her behalf (xii. 17).

And kept her safe, and her husband (xii. 20).

Remember-i. Speak the Truth in love. Eph. iv. 15.

ii. Act discreetly—(1) for our own safety.

(2) for the preservation of our brethren from the commission of sin.

e.g. S. Paul's act. Acts xxiii. 17.

iii. Trust God. Acts xxvii. 25; 2 Tim. i. 12; 1 S. Pet. iv. 19.

Collect, 5 S. a. Epiph. Hymn, 276.

Abram and Lot: 'The Good Part chosen.'

Read-Gen. xiii.: Text-S. John vii. 24.

The 'Exodus' of Abram from Egypt (xiii. 1).

Returning to 'the place where his tent had been at the beginning' (xiii. 3).

The 'Sacrifice of Thanksgiving' (xiii. 4) and renewal of worship. No 'altar' in Egypt. Cp. Ex. viii. 26, 27.

(1) For preservation from the spiritual (idolatry).
dangers of Egypt temporal (loss of life and chastity).

(2) For abundance in time of dearth.

Fresh Cause of Trial-brought about by GOD (xiii. 6).

- (1) For strengthening Abram's trust in God.
- (2) For bringing about the final separation of Abram 'from his kindred' (xii. 1).

The trial develops and strengthens several good points in Abram.

- (1) Abram's love of peace—' Let there be no strife' (xiii. 8; cp. Gen. xlv. 24).
- (2) " unselfishness—choice offered to Lot (xiii. 9).
- (3) ,, trust in GOD—to guide the choice.

Lot's Choice—according to the 'natural man,' earthly motives (xiii. 10).

No mention of prayer for guidance, etc. 'Lot lifted up his eyes,' etc., not his heart.

Contrast JESUS (S. Luke vi. 12, 13); the Apostles (Acts i. 24).

His choice brought him into great dangers, from which, 'rightcous' though he was (2 S. Pet. ii. 8), he was only saved 'so as by fire' (1 Cor. iii. 15), through the intercession of faithful Abraham. Gen. xviii. 23; xix. 29.

Note the downward course of Lot—'he beheld;' 'he chose;' 'journeyed east;' 'pitched his tent toward Sodom;' 'dwelt there' (xiii. 10-13).

Abram's Reward—Communion with God (xiii. 14).

Present home in Canaan (xiii. 18).

Promise of future possession and increase.

Remember—i. Unselfishness—Give up to others to avoid strife;
GOD will overrule all for good.

ii. Pray for guidance in simple trust. Ps. xxxvii. 5.

iii. Do not judge by 'appearances.' 1 Sam. xvi. 6; S. John vii. 24.

Collect, 8 S. a. Trin. Hymn, 266.

Abram and Melchizedek : 'The Belp in Time of Beed.'

Read-Gen. xiv.: Text-Heb. iv. 14, etc.

Lot at Sodom—soon incurs dangers (temporal).

Loss of earthly goods and freedom (ver. 12).

Lot rescued by faithful Abram (ver. 16).

Abram's efforts on behalf of Lot.

Sacrifice of ease, safety, money, etc. (ver. 14).

N.B.—Lot returns to Sodom, where he soon incurs fresh and greater dangers, temporal and spiritual (Gen. xix.).

Abram tempted by the King of Sodom.

Abram and his companions, though victorious, yet weak, weary, and faint for want of food.

Satan knew this, and seized this opportunity. Cp. S. Matt. iv. 2, 3.

Offers of kindness, proposals of friendship from the King of Sodom (Satan's agent).

'Help in time of need.' Melchizedek, King of Salem, brought forth 'bread and wine' (ver. 18).

His offering accepted, as a 'Priest of the Most High God.'
Heb. vii. 1.

Melchizedek's Blessing (ver. 19).

Abram's Gratitude.—Abram gave Melchizedek tithes of all (ver 20; Heb. vii. 4).

Thus Abram was strengthened to refuse the friendship and resist the temptation of the King of Sodom (vers. 22, 23).

Abram's Tenderness for others—mark of true charity and faith—

Does not compel or expect his young men to act up to the standard he has set for himself; he leaves them free to act in accordance with their consciences, and the measure of grace given unto them. Eph. iv. 7; S. James iv. 17.

Melchizedek—mysterious person; nothing said of him except this passage.

Supposed to have been the Patriarch Shem.

or manifestation of the Second Person of the B. Trinity.

Explained by S. Paul as Type of the Royal Priest, JESUS Christ. Type of Christ.—(1) Without any genealogy in Scrip. Heb. vii. 3.

Representing the eternity of Christ.

- (2) His name = 'King of Rightcousness.' Isa. xxxii. 1; Jer. xxxiii. 6.
- (3) His title='King of Peace.' Isa. ix. 6.
- (4) Uniting in himself the Royal and Pricstly Office.
- (5) The universality of his Priesthood and Kingdom.
- (6) Offering 'bread and wine,' which represent the fruits of the earth, as an earnest of the future possession of Canaan. So Christ gives His Body and Blood as a pledge of future bliss. S. John vi. 54.

Bread and Wine in themselves emblems of JESUS Christ Incarnate.

Bread in its various stages.—The seed hidden—tender blade —winds—storms—cold—heat —cutdown—bruised—ground
—Bread. S. John vi. 35.

Wine in its various stages. — Tender plant — grapes—torn—crushed, etc. Isa. liii. 2.

Bread and Wine throughout Scripture have symbolical reference to the H. Eucharist.

e.g. Manna in the wilderness. S. John vi. 49, 50.

Shewbread.

Gideon's cake. Judg. vii. 13.

Elisha's loaves. 2 Kings iv. 42, etc.

Wine that maketh glad the heart of man. Ps. civ. 15; Judg. ix. 13.

The flour and wine with the daily Sacrifices. Ex xxx. 40, 41.

JESUS a 'Priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.' Heb. vi. 20.

The 'offering' of King and Priest of Salem continued in the Church to the end of the world. Mal. i. 11; Ps. cxxxv. 13.

JESUS presents Himself visibly, really in Heaven.

His priests at the altars on earth plead and present Him invisibly, sacramentally, really.

In time of weakness and weariness, after struggle, when Satan attacks, JESUS, our High Priest, is ever present in His Church to offer the 'Bread and Wine' of the B. Sacrament—His Own Body and Blood, which shall enable us to resist and refuse the offers of the 'Prince of this world.'

Remember—i. The Presence of Jesus. Ps. xlvi. 1; S. Matt. xxviii. 20.

Sympathy ,, I Cor. x. 13; Heb. iv. 15. Intercession ,, Heb. vii. 25.

ii. Accept thankfully His offering. S. Matt. xxvi. 26, 27; Heb. iv. 16.

At God's command Abram offers a sacrifice, and as he stands by the sacrifice—

He falls into a trance, 'a deep sleep,' ver. 12; Gen. ii. 21; Acts x. 10, 11.

He hears the history of his descendants for the next 400 years foretold (vers. 13-17).

The Light of GoD's Presence is vouchsafed (ver. 17). The covenant is renewed (ver. 18).

Abram and Pagar: 'A Lesson in Patience.'

Read-Gen. xvi.: Text-Rom. viii. 25.

No Sign of the Promised Seed-Sarai aged and barren.

Abram, at Sarai's request, takes Hagar the bond-maid; tries, other than in GOD's appointed way, to get the Promised Heir.

Abram apparently succeeds; Hagar is fruitful, but her child the child of 'self-will,' 'the will of man,' cp. S. John i. 13 cannot be the Heir. Gen. xvii. 18, 19.

Note the Results of Abram's 'Self-will.'

The true wife is despised (ver. 4).

Mutual reproaches between mistress and servant husband and wife } ver. 5.

The flight of Hagar (ver. 6).

The 'mocking' of Ishmael. Gen. xxi. 9.

The unkindness which Abram was obliged to show towards Hagar and her child in sending her away (xxi. 10-15).

Abram's example to his descendants; polygamy the special sin of Ishmaelites and modern Arabs.

14 years longer to wait for the Promised Heir.

This act used by GOD as a Type. Hagar typ. the Jewish Church. Gal. iv. 25.

Remember—i. God's promises depend on our co-operation with God—i.e. working in God's way, not our own. Isa. lv. 8; Acts xvi. 7, and xix. 10.

- ii. Wait patiently for a revelation of GoD's will; it will come quite quickly enough if it comes in God's Own time. Ps. cxxx. 5; xxxvii. 5; Isa. xxx. 5.
- iii. Our example is always doing good or harm to others. Which? Phil. iii. 17; Tit. ii. 7.

Collect, 6 S. in Lent. Hymn, 276.

Abraham: 'A Cobenant with God.'

Read-Gen. xvii.: Text-Heb. x. 16, 17.

The Lord reveals Himself to Abram - 'I am the Almighty GoD.'

Gives him a rule of life—' Be thou perfect.'

And a help to its fulfilment—'Walk before Me,' i.e. as in My sight.

Cp. our B. LORD'S rule for Christians (Abram's seed, Gal. iii. 29). S. Matt. v. 48.

The great help in trying to carry out this rule—recollection of the Presence of God. Gen. xvi. 13; xxxix. 9; Ps. xvi. 9; cxxxix. 6-11.

A Covenant proposed to Abram by God (ver. 2).

Resulting in great privileges to his descendants (vers. 4-9).

Dependent on his obedience to God's commands (ver. 10).

Abram's humble surrender of himself to GoD's Will (ver. 3).

Cp. i. The Revelation of GoD's will to the B. V. Mary, S. Luke i. 30, 31.

> which should result in great spiritual blessings to 'the Israel of God.' S. Luke i. 32, 33.

Her humble surrender of herself to God. S. Luke i. 38.

ii. The Covenant which God proposes to all nations now. S. Matt. xxviii. 19; 1 Tim. ii. 4.

Resulting in great spiritual blessings.

Dependent on our obedience to GoD's commands,

S. Mark xvi. 16; S. John iii. 5.

The outward Tokens of the Covenant.

- i. With Abram.
  - (1) Circumcision—symb. 'the putting off the body of the sins of the flesh.' Col. ii. 11.

Involving blood-shedding—token of need of forgiveness by God. Heb. ix. 22.

(2) New Name—Abram changed to Abraham.

N.B.—'H,' a letter of GOD'S Name, Jehovah, inserted in Abram's name (ver. 5).

Also substituted for a letter of Sarai's name (ver. 15).

Cp. the addition to Oshea's name—Jah-Oshea, Joshua. Num. xiii. 16.

- ii. With Christians.
  - (1) Holy Baptism—for all without restriction. Gal. iii. 28.

    Not involving blood-shedding, but 'the sign of the cross;' 'the Blood of the covenant' (Heb. x. 29) having been shed once for all by JESUS Christ. Heb. ix. 28.
  - (2) The Christian Name given at Holy Baptism.

The Inward Grace of the Covenant,

i. To Abram—Great blessings.

many nations (ver. 4).

kings (ver. 6).

possession of a Promised Land (ver. 8).

- ii. To Christians—A new birth into Christ (Tit. iii. 5, 6), whereby we become—
  - (1) Members of Christ. 1 Cor. xii. 27.
  - (2) Children of GoD. Gal. iii. 26, 27.
  - (3) Inheritors of the kingdom of heaven. Rom. viii. 17.

The Time of Admission into the Covenant-

8th day after birth (day of Resurrection).

Argument for Infant Baptism.

Also cp. S. Mark x. 14; Acts ii. 39.

- Neglect of God's Ordinance—'That soul shall be cut off' (vcr. 14).
  - (a) By Divine judgment (see Ex. iv. 24-27).
  - (b) By death inflicted by magistrate (cp. Ex. xii. 15).

Cp. spiritual loss through wilful neglect of Holy Baptism.
S. John iii. 5; Acts ii. 37, 38.

Remember—i. Thank GoD for admitting you into covenant with Himself. Col. i. 12, 13; 1 Tim. i. 12, 13.

- ii. The responsibilities of your covenant with GoD.
  - (1) To renounce the Devil. 1 S. Pet. v. 8; S. James iv. 7; S. Matt. iv. 10, 11.
  - (2) To believe all the Articles of the Christian Faith. 2 Tim. i. 13; S. Jude 3.
  - (3) To keep God's Holy Will and Commandments. S. Matt. vii. 21; S. John xiv. 21.
  - iii. Seek for grace to keep the covenant. S. John Collect, 'We yield Thee hearty thanks,' etc., Office for Holy Baptism (adapted).

Hymn, 334.

Abraham: 'The Friend of God.'

Read-Gen. xviii.: Text-S. John xiv. 23.

Abraham visited by GoD.

The Form of the Manifestation-'three Men.'

God mercifully adopted a 'form' which Abraham could bear —three Men.

Contr. Ex. xx. 18, 19.

Yet at the same time taught the mystery of the B. Trinity.

Three Men, yet 'the Lord'—'not Three Lords, but One Lord.' (Athan. Creed.)

The Time of the Manifestation—'the heat of the day'—mid-day.

Cp. Acts xxvi. 13.

'Thou of Comforters the best,' etc.—Hymn 156, ver. 2.

The Place of the Manifestation—'in the plains of Mamre . . . in the tent door,' where he was living in obedience to GoD's call (xii. 1).

The Reception of the Divine Visitors.

Reverential joy—'He ran to meet Them . . . and bowed himself toward the ground.'

Desire to detain Them—'Pass not away, I pray Thee.' S. Luke xxiv. 29.

Proof of love and hospitality (vers. 4-9)—desire to offer the best he could, sparing no trouble or expense for himself or Sarah. Cp. 2 Sam. xxiv. 24; Heb. xiii. 2.

Humility—'under the tree,' not in the tent.

Cp. S. Matt. viii. 8.

Abraham's petition granted at once—' So do, as thou hast said.'

N.B.—Sarah, a 'Princess' (cp. Gen. xvii. 15, margin), having more than 300 servants, was not 'too grand' to do
'domestic work' for God's glory (ver. 6).

The Sacrificial view of the Feast—The 'Calf'—pouring out life-blood.

The 'fine flour.'

The calm, unbroken Communion—'He stood by Them.'

No interruptions—no distractions.

Note.—'They did eat.' As S. Aug. says of JESUS after the Resurrection—'He ate indeed of His power, not from necessity. The thirsty earth absorbs water in one way, the burning sun in another way—the one from want, the other from power.' (Catena Aur., S. Luke xxiv. 43.)

The Results of this calm, devout Communion with GoD.

i. A blessing—The promise of the Child renewed? ver. 10.

The channel—'Sarah'—named

The time fixed (ver. 14).

N.B.—Abraham had 'laughed' (xvii. 17) in amazement and joy.

Sarah laughed in unbelief, which was, however, soon conquered by her old faith. Heb. xi. 11.

Cp. the B. V. Mary. S. Luke i. 38.

ii. A knowledge of the 'Mind of God.' Cp. 1 Cor. ii. 16.
For himself and for posterity—the reason of the destruction of Sodom, and that it was not by chance.

Cp. S. John xiii. 23, 24.

The special Graces which devout Communion with God imparted to or deepened in Abraham.

- (1) Love for souls—all in Sodom.
- (2) Persevering intercession for souls Sodom was not saved, but Lot was, and some others, through Abraham's prayer (xix. 29).

Co. Gen. xxxix. 3; Acts xxvii. 24, 37; S. Matt. xxiv. 32.

- Remember—i. Accept with 'reverential joy' all opportunities of Communion with God, e.g. Spiritual reading, Prayer, Meditation, Spiritual Communion, and especially the Sacrificial Feast of the Holy Eucharist.
  - ii. Be hospitable and kind to all, as far as possible, for Christ's sake. 1 S. Pet. iv. 9; S. Matt. xxv. 40; Heb. xiii. 2.
  - iii. Pray for others. S. James v. 16.
- Note.—Several points in the story of Zacchæus suggest that he had learnt well this story of Abraham his ancestor (S. Luke xix. 1-10), e.g. he 'ran'—'hastened'—received the Lord joyfully—received a blessing. Special mention of his being a 'Son of Abraham'; perhaps JESUS referred to the story.
  - N.B.—To realize more fully the points of this story, it should be contrasted throughout with chap. xix.—Lot, 'the Worldly-minded Communicant.'

Collect, 6 S. a. Trin. Hymn, 178, part i.

Lot: 'The Worldly: Minded Communicant.'

Read—Gen. xix. 1-30: Text—1 S. John ii. 15.

Lot 'righteous.' 2 S. Pet. ii. 8.

i.e. a worshipper of the true GOD, contrasted with the moral, Sodomites.

Yet not mentioned, like Abraham, as 'faithful.'

He had gone back to Sodom, even after the dangers he had incurred there, and notwithstanding the sinfulness of the place, which he must then have known by his own experience. Perhaps he thought he would 'improve' Sodom.

Lot visited by God.

The Place of the Visitation—'in the gate of Sodom.' Lot had mixed himself up with the Sodomites, and had some authority among them.

Cp. Deut. xxi. 19; Ps. lxix. 12; Prov. xxxi. 23.

The Time of the Visitation—'at even'—i.e. in declining light.

He had to wait longer for it.

It was not so clear when it came.

The Form of the Visitation—' Two Angels.'

A less perfect Communion than faithful Abraham—'three Men' (xviii. 2).

The Reception of the Visitors.

- (1) Reverence—he 'rose up . . . bowed himself.' No special joy mentioned, as in Abraham's case, who 'ran to meet them' (xviii. 2).
- (2) Desire to detain them-'tarry all night.'
- (3) Hospitality—desire to offer something.

Lot's desire granted, but only after a long struggle in prayer (ver. 3).

Cp. Abraham's case—no effort required (xviii. 5).

The Sacrificial view of the Feast lost sight of by Lot.

No calf, etc. (xviii. 7), only 'unleavened bread' (ver. 3).

The Communion interrupted—' distractions,' resulting from his place of abode—Sodom.

'No man can serve two masters.' Lot could not satisfy his Visitors or the Sodomites, and was not satisfied himself. S. Matt. vi. 24.

The daughters offered, in the hope of saving the Sodomites from worse sins.

(Cp. note on Gen. xii. 12, 13, p. 33.)

N.B.—Friendliness with the world often leads to the sacrifice of what is good.

e.g. doctrinal principles—denial or compromise of truth.

practice—the observance of Fridays.

The influence of Lot's example on others. Judg. xix. 24.

The Result of the Divine Visitation.

Not a quiet revelation of the Mind of God, as with Abraham (xviii. 17

But a terrible prediction of coming judgment.

- N.B.—Three ways of dealing with sin in the world, as shown in history of Lot:—
  - (1) GOD's way—sending special Messengers to testify of coming judgment—to show the way of safety.
  - (2) The way of faith (Abraham)—keep away from sin, and pray for the sinners.
  - (3) The way of the worldly-minded—live amongst it, and 'improve' mankind.

Lot's Preaching to the Men of Sodom.

(1) Not quite in accordance with God's Word.

GOD said—'Bring them out' (ver. 12).

Lot said—'Get you out' (ver. 14).

(2) Not quite in accordance with his own example.

Lot said—'Get you out,' but lingered himself.

Hence he 'seemed as one that mocked' to those who heard him.

Lot saved, but with difficulty—'so as by fire.' I Cor. iii. 15.

The Prayers of Abraham and Lot—the results of Communion with GoD.

Abraham, in fervent intercession for others, yields his will to GoD's will (xviii. 23).

Lot prays only for self, and strives for his own will throughout (xix. 18, 19).

Lot's wife had caught the spirit of 'worldly-mindedness,' and looked back wistfully.

N.B.—Those at home may be learning much from us but what?

Remember—i. Be careful in the choice of company and companions.

'A man is known by his companions' (heathen proverb). Eph. v. 11; 1 S. John i. 3; Rev. xviii. 4.

 Be truthful and consistent in word and act. S. Matt. xxiii. 3.

 Be unselfish in prayer. We cannot say how much we owe to the prayers of others. S. Jas. v. 16.

Collect, 18 S. a. Trin., or S. Matthew.

Hymn, 263.

Gen. xx. Abraham in the Philistine's Land.

Cp. Notes on Abram in Egypt, p. 32.

GOD had not expressed any disapproval of Abraham's act in Egypt, therefore he thought GOD would bless it again, if he trusted himself and Sarah to GOD; hence fresh proof of Abraham's 'trust in GOD.' (S. Augustine.)

It is only fair to say that some think this—as previously in Egypt—a proof of Abraham's weakness.

Isaac: 'The Child of Promise.'

Read-Gen. xxi. 1-22. Text-S. Luke ii. 10, 11; or Gal. iv. 28.

A child had been promised by GoD to Abraham, through Sarah (xvii. 19).

Within a fixed time (a year, xvii. 21).

The Promise fulfilled.

The Conception of the Child—(1) Supernatural. Abraham and Sarah 'as good as dead.' Heb. xi. 11, 12; cp. S. Luke i. 34.

(2) Through faith. Heb. xi. 11; cp. S. Luke i. 45.

Contr. the supernatural 'forming of Christ in us.' Gal. iv. 19.

And our 'new birth' in Him. S. John iii. 5; Gal. iii. 27.

The Time of the Birth—after long patience—Abraham 99 years old.

Yet at the fixed time.

Cp. JESUS promised, Gen. iii. 15; but not given for 4000 years. Yet at fixed time. Gal. iv. 4; Dan. ix. 25.

The Name given—'Isaac.' Name fore-appointed by GOD (xvii. 19). Cp. JESUS. S. Matt. i. 21.

At 8 days old. Cp. S. Luke ii. 21.

Sarah's Magnificat, vers. 6, 7. Cp. S. Luke i. 46, etc.

The Trials of the Child of Promise.

(1) The Circumcision. Cp. JESUS, S. Luke ii. 21.

The first blood-shedding, a foretaste of suffering for sin.

for GoD.

An earnest of future suffering in store.

- Cp. the life of a Child of Promise (S. Paul). Phil. iii. 10; 2 Cor. xi. 24-29.
  - Suffering the lot of all members of Christ. S. Matt. xvi. 24; 1 S. Pet. v. 10.
- (2) The Mocking. On the occasion of the 'weaning' of Isaac (prob. 3 years old. 2 Macc. vii. 27),
  - a 'great feast' was made by Abraham; the attention of Ishmael and Hagar was drawn to Isaac by this; envy and jealousy sprang up, and hostility was shown by—
  - (a) Ridiculing, unkind words.
  - (b) 'Persecuting' (Gal. iv. 29), unkind acts.
- i. Cp. the treatment of 'the Child of Promise,' JESUS.

Persecuted by Herod. S. Matt. ii. 13.

Called a 'Nazarene' in mockery. S. Matt. ii. 23; S. John xix. 19.

Despised, envied, persecuted by the Jews, His brethren. S. Matt. xxvii. 18; S. John xviii. 35.

ii. Cp. the treatment of 'Christians'—Gal. iv. 28, 29—by the 'children of the bondwoman.' Gal. iv. 31.

Mocking of the Jews. Acts ii. 13.

Persecuting , Acts v. 40; viii. 1.

- N.B.—The incident seems suggestive at the present time. So long as Christians are 'babes in Christ' (1 Cor. iii. 1), fed with 'the milk of the Word' (1 S. Pet. ii. 2), they are let alone; but when Christians grow and require 'strong meat' (Heb. v. 12, 13), and the 'Great Feast' of the H. Eucharist is made, their attention is arrested, and 'mocking' and 'persecuting' follow from members of the same household.
- The Victory of the Heir. Isaac bore it patiently, and GoD interfered to deliver the 'Child of Promise' from persecution (ver. 12), and Ishmael was 'cast out.'
  - Cp. God's interference on behalf of His Church, when the 'Children of Promise' were persecuted, e.g. Acts ix. 31, and the history of the Church since that time.
    - Pledge of final triumph of Catholic truth and practice. S. Matt. xvi. 18.

Remember—i. Gratitude to GOD for our 'adoption' as His children through Christ. Gal. iv. 6, 7.

ii. Patience.

- (1) In waiting for the fulfilment of GOD's promises. Ps. lxii. 1; Isa. xxx. 18; Heb. x. 36, 37.
- (2) In bearing the trials and sufferings which God's privileges entail. S. Matt. x. 22, 36; 1 S. Pet. iv. 14; Rev. ii. 10.

Collect, Christmas Day. Hymn, 446.

Hsaac: 'A Willing Sacrifice.'

Read—Gen. xxii. 1-20: Text—S. John x. 17, 18.

- God 'tempts' Abraham, i.e. tries Abraham—proves him—for his good and the good of others.
  - 'God tempts that He may teach; the Devil tempts that he may deceive.' (S. Aug.)
- The Temptation or Trial.—' Take . . . Isaac, . . . and offer him for a burnt-offering ' (ver. 2).
  - The sacrifice of Isaac without GOD's command would have been a sinful act.
  - N.B.—We must be very careful about self-chosen sacrifices, which GoD does not ask for; they may be very great, but very sinful.
- The Temptation—chiefly inward trial—far greater than any of the former sacrifices required of him by GoD—home, kindred, country, etc.; this the sacrifice of a 'life.'
  - The others are not called temptations, the word is reserved for this one.
  - The temptation of Abraham involved trials and sufferings for others besides himself—Isaac, Sarah, and the servants.
  - N.B.—We are not strong enough to bear great trials and temptations direct from GoD, yet GOD lets us have some of the 'privileges' of suffering through the trials which He brings on others. 2 Cor. i. 7; I S. Pet. iv. 13.

Abraham's Part in the Sacrifice.

(1) 'Take Isaac,' thy son, so long waited for.

thine only son—Ishmael gone—the child in whom thy seed is to be called (xxi. 12; Heb. xi. 18).

whom thou lovest, the child of thine old age. S. John iii. 16.

(2) 'Get thee into the land of Moriah.'

A long journey. Cp. JESUS coming from heaven; a far country. S. Luke xx. 9; Isa. xxxiii. 17.

Mount Moriah='Chosen of GOD,' the place appointed by GOD.

This was afterwards the site of David's Altar, 2 Sam. xxiv. 25; and Solomon's Temple, 2 Chron. iii. 1.

N.B.—The place of sacrifice must not be self chosen, any more than the sacrifice itself.

(3) 'Offer him there for a burnt-offering.'

Burnt-offering signified the completeness of the sacrifice and obedience required. Not merely kill him, but let nothing be left of him.

The ready obedience of Abraham—'rose up early.' Cp. Josh. iii. 1; vi. 12; vii. 16.

Note the minuteness with which the details of the sacrifice are given.

Cp. the lengthening out the details of the Passion at the end of the four Gospels.

He saddled the ass.

Chose the servants.

Called Isaac to go forth.

Clave the wood.

Bade farewell to Sarah.

Went forth.

The three days' journey; patient endurance.

Separates Isaac from the servants.

Lays the wood on Isaac.

Takes the fire; symb. Divine Love.

knife; "Divine Justice.

Builds the altar, and prepares the wood.

Strips off the garments from Isaac.

Binds Isaac.

Lays him on the altar, on the wood.

Takes the knife to slay him.

The 'three days' journey' may typ. the three years' Ministry; or three hours on the Cross; or three days from Death to Resurrection. Heb. xi. 19.

Isaac was 'as good as dead' from the time that Abraham began to prepare for the sacrifice till the 'Angel' restored Isaac.

Sarah's Part in the Sacrifice.

Hearing GOD's will through Abraham. Cp. S. Luke ii. 34, 35.

Sympathy with Abraham, her husband, in the sacrifice required of him.

The parting from Isaac. Cp. S. John xix. 25-28.

Waiting (in hope) for the return foretold by Abraham— 'and come again to you' (ver. 5). Cp. S. John ii. 19.

Isaac's Part in the Secrifice.

Yields himself to GoD's will, as revealed to him through his father. Cp. S. Luke xxii. 42.

Goes the three days' journey. Cp. S. Luke xiii. 33; S. Mark x. 32.

Separates himself from the servants. Cp. S. Matt. xxvi. 36; Isa. lxiii. 3.

Goes 'alone' with his father. Cp. S. John xvi. 32.

Bears the wood for the sacrifice. Cp. S. John xix. 17. Submits to be bound. Cp. S. John xviii. 12; S. Luke xxiii. 33.

The 'silence' of Isaac. Cp. Isa. liii. 7; S. Matt. xxvii. 12,14.

N.B.— Isaac was about 37 years old, and might have successfully resisted.

Cp. the power which JESUS refused to use. S. Matt. xxvi. 53; S. John x. 17.

The Unity of Purpose between the Father and the Son.

They went both of them together (vers. 6, 8).

GOD gave His Son. Rom. viii. 32.

Christ gave Himself. 1 Tim. ii. 6.

GOD was in Christ. 2 Cor. v. 19.

Isaac on the Altar. Cp. S. Mark xv. 35.

The 'Resurrection' of Isaac.

Isaac restored by the voice of the 'Angel of the Lord' (vers. 11, 12; Heb. xi. 19).

Divine Justice satisfied—' Now know I,' etc., i.e. 'Now l have made to be known.'

GOD knew before, but could not declare it to others until proof was given by Abraham's acts. S. James ii. 20, 21.

So we must show our faith by our works, or else 'I never knew you.' S. Matt. vii. 22, 23.

N.B.—What God wanted from Abraham was not the sacrifice of Isaac, but the sacrifice of Abraham's will.

Hence note the love of GOD the Father and GOD the Son in doing what They did not require Abraham and Isaac to do. Rom. viii. 32; S. John iii. 16.

Proof of satisfaction of Divine Justice, the restoration of Isaac (ver. 12).

Cp. the Resurrection of JESUS. Acts xvii. 31.

The Ram caught in the Thicket. Cp. JESUS crowned with thorns. S. John xix. 5.

The sacrifice of the Ram in the place of Isaac points to the substitution of the Human Nature of Christ.

The Blessings of Obedience.

- (1) To Abraham.
  - (a) The approval of GOD. Cp. S. Matt. xxv. 21, 34; S. James ii. 23.
  - (6) Renewed communion with GoD—'the second time' (ver. 15).
  - (c) Vision of Christ in type. S. John viii. 56.
  - (d) Promise of Christ confirmed with an oath (ver. 16; Heb. vi. 13).
- (2) To others.
  - (a) A wonderful example of faith and obedience.
  - (b) A type of Calvary.
  - (c) A promise of universal blessing.

The Reunion after the Sacrifice.—Isaac bearing the marks of the 'binding.'

i. Isaac and Abraham, though they had never been actually separated. S. John xx. 17.

ii. Isaac and 'the servants.' S. John xx. 20.

iii. Isaac and his mother.

Remember—i. Trust God, no matter what He appoints. Job xiii. 15.

ii. Obey God, no matter what it costs. Heb. v. 8.

iii. The blessings of obedience; the fruitfulness of self-sacrifice. 2 Cor. iv. 17; S. Matt. xvi. 25;S. John vi. 51.

'The Blood of the Martyrs is the seed of the Church.'

Collect, 2 S. a. Easter. Hymn, 264.

The Burial of a Princess.

Read-Gen. xxiii.: Text-S. Matt. xxvii. 59, 60.

Sarah, a 'Princess.' Gen. xvii. 15 (margin).

the mother of the faithful. 1 S. Pet. iii. 6.

a type of the Christian Church. Gal. iv. 26.

the only woman whose age at death is recorded in H. Scrip.

the first recorded funeral in H. Scrip.

Abraham's Request for a Burying-Place.

Care for the dead frequently mentioned as a special act of piety. Gen. l. 1, etc.; 2 Kings ix. 34; Tobit i. 17; S. Matt. xiv. 12; Acts viii. 2.

Special place of burial—(1) to be kept from all other uses.

(2) distinct from the burying-places of the heathen.

Abraham could not hold communion with them in sacred things in death or in life.

Expression of faith in the Resurrection of the body.

N.B.—Abraham had been 60 years in the Land of Promise, yet did not possess ground for a burying-place.

Cp. the Lord of Glory, S. Luke ix. 58; dependent on the love of others for a grave. S. John xix. 38.

The Kindness of the People of the Land, esp. Ephron the Hittite.

Probably owing to the influence of Abraham for good.

his life (as revealed by GOD). Gen. xviii. 19. his acts of conquest. Gen. xiv. 13, etc. a prophet. Gen. xx. 7.

Cp. the influence of JESUS on Nicodemus (S. John iii. 1; xix. 39), Joseph of Arimathea, and the holy women, etc.

Caves the ordinary way of burial in those countries. S. John xi. 38; S. Matt. xxvii. 60, 66.

Abraham wished this piece of ground to be dedicated to God for a special and sacred purpose.

He would not do this until

- (1) He had paid for it himself. He would not offer other persons' gifts to God. Cp. Jacob, Gen. xxxiii. 19; David, 2 Sam. xxiv. 24.
- (2) It was 'made sure to him for a possession' (vers. 17, 18). The price paid for the ground (ver. 16). Cp Christ 'with the rich in His death.' Isa. liii. 9.

Afterwards buried at Machpelah—Abraham (xxv. 10).

Isaac (xxxv. 29).

Rebekah
Jacob (xlix. 30, 31).

Leah

There was an Altar at each of the burying-places.

Mamre, which is Hebron, near Machpelah. Gen. xiii. 18.

Shechem or Sichem (xxiii. 19, 20).

May not the building, and the special mention of an Allar at each of the burying-places, suggest the belief of the Patriarch in the 'departed' having some share in the benefit of the sacrifices offered and pleaded?

[What would the descendants of Abraham have thought, and what answer would they have given, if the childrer of Heth had claimed the right to use the burying-ground of Machpelah (and the altar) for burial, according to their own rites, after Abraham had bought the ground, and had it 'made sure to him for a possession'?]

Remember-i. Reverent care for Churchyards.

ii. Faith in the Resurrection of the Body.

iii. Remembrance of the 'faithful dead' at the Altar. 'We also bless Thy Holy Name for all Thy Servants, etc. (Pr. for Ch. Militant.)

Collect, 'Almighty God, with Whom do live,' etc. (Prayer in Burial Office), adapted.

Hymn, 221.

A Bride sought for the Beir.

Read-Gen. xxiv.; Text-Rev. xix. 7.

- Isaac, the Child of Promise, having been born contrary to nature, endured mocking and persecution, offered up as a Sacrifice, and raised from the dead ('in a figure'), now has a Bride sought for him by his father.
  - N.B.—Different persons and characters are required in Scripture to typify JESUS Christ, the Church, etc., in various stages, e.g. Sarah, type of Church in one stage. (Gal. iv. 24, etc.) Sarah dies, and Rebekah becomes a type of the Church in another stage.
- The 'Call' of the Faithful Servant (ver. 2).
  - Cp. Heb. v. 4; S. Matt. iv. 18-23; Acts xiii. 2; xvi. 10; and first question in the 'Ordering of Priests.'
- The 'Mission' of the Faithful Servant—'thou shalt go' (ver. 4).
  - The Prophets, Apostles, and Ministry of the Church, sent out to draw souls to Christ. Amos vii. 14; Jer. i. 4, 5; S. Mark i. 16, 17; xvi. 15; Acts xiii. 4; Rom. x. 14, 15.
  - The 'sphere' of work—'unto my country, and to my kindred' (ver. 4)., i.e. not Canaanites.
    - Cp. Christ seeking for His Bride—the Church—not among Angels, but men, the nature He took into union with the Divine. Heb. ii. 16.

The 'object' of the mission—'take a wife unto my son' (ver. 4). S. Matt. iv. 19; 2 Cor. v. 10; Acts xxvi, 18.

Shrinking from the mission (ver. 5).

From conscious weakness, and humility.

Judg. vi. 15; Jer. i. 6; Ex. iii. 11;
iv. 1, 10, 13.

From sense of responsibility, and fear of failure. Acts x. 13, 14; xxii. 19, 20; 1 Kings xviii. 12.

The limit of responsibility (ver. 8).

N.B.—Obedience to the Mission, not necessarily success, is required. Cp. S. Matt. x. 23.

Supernatural aid promised—'He shall send His Angel before thee' (ver. 7).

Cp. Ex. iv. 12; Josh. v. 13; Judg. vi. 16; Jer. i. 8; S. Matt. x. 19; xxviii. 20; S. John xx. 22.

Ultimate success assured—'thou shalt take' (ver. 7).

Cp. S. Matt. xvi. 18; Rev. xi. 15; xix. 7.

Means for the journey—'ten camels of the camels of his master' (ver. 10).

Cp. Gen. xlv. 21-25; 1 Cor. ix. 13, 14.

Tokens or proofs of mission (vers. 10, 22, 30).

Cp. Gen. xlv. 27; Ex. iv. 1-10; S. Mark xvi. 17, 18; Acts iv. 13-17.

Prompt obedience to the mission—'he arose and went' (ver. 10).

Cp. Gen. xxii. 3; Josh. iii. 1; S. Matt. iv. 20, 22.

Dependence upon God—prayer for guidance and blessing (vers. 12-15).

Cp. Acts i. 24; xiii. 2; xvi. 6, 7, 9.

The 'sign' may probably have been intimated or suggested by God. Cp. Judg. vi. 36, etc. We must not tempt God by presumptuously fixing the modes of His working. (Read Judith viii. 10-18.)

The 'servant' had profited by his religious training at home. Gen. xviii. 19.

Encouragement—answer to prayer (ver. 15). Cp. Isa. -lxv. 24; Acts iv. 31.

The delivering of the message.

The servant must be sure of the goodwill of his hearers before he makes the appeal. S. Matt. xiii. 58; S. Mark iv. 9. 'Let me drink' (ver. 17). Cp. JESUS. S. John iv. 7, 10. 'Whose daughter?' (ver. 23).

Is there room?' (ver. 23).

He thinks of his Master, not of himself, in all the kindness he receives,—'hath not lest destitute my Master' (ver. 27). Cp. S. Matt. x. 40; contr. Acts xii. 21-24.

Zeal for his Master (ver. 33). Cp. S. Mark iii. 20, 21; vi. 31; S. John iv. 34; 1 Cor. ii. 2; ix. 16.

The message (vers. 34-50).

Cp. the friend of the Bridegroom (S. John iii. 29), who pleaded his Master's cause. S. John iii. 35, 36; 2 Cor. v. 20.

The Second Marriage of Abraham (xxv. 1).

Hagar and Ishmael declared by S. Paul to be types of the Sarah and Isaac Synagogue—Church. Gal. iv. 22, etc.

Hence children of Abraham and Keturah, and the concubines (ver. 6), generally regarded by the Fathers as types of those who in some respects are members of the Church, but not sound or full members of that Body.

The Death of Abraham (xxv. 7, 8).

Buried in the Cave of Machpelah (xxv. 9), by Isaac and Ishmael (xxv. 9). Cp. xxxv. 29.

Isaac takes his Father's place (xxv. 5, 11).

The Abode of Issac—the well Lahai-roi (xxv. 11); where GoD appeared to Hagar (xvi. 14).

='the Well of Life and Vision.' Cp. Ps. xxxvi. 9.

The Strivings of Nature and of Grace.

Read-Gen. xxv. 19-27: Text-Gal. v. 17.

Trial of Faith and Patience.

Notwithstanding the promises (Gen. xxii. 17, 18), Rebekah barren for 20 years (cp. xxv. 20, 26); while Ishmael's seed increased rapidly. (Ps. xvii. 15.)

The Prayer for Fruitfulness (ver. 21).

'Intreated the Lord'=lit. 'burnt incense to the Lord.'

Note the early use of incense. Cp. Mal. i. 11.

Children—God's gift. Ps. cxxvii. 4; Judg. xiii. 3; 2 Kings iv. 14; Isa. viii. 18.

Foreshadowing the mystery of the Incarnation. Hag. ii. 7.

The Answer to Prayer (ver. 21). Cp. Ps. xxxiv. 4, 15, 17; lxv. 2. The answer to the prayer for fruitfulness, in the individual soul,

The answer to the prayer for fruitfulness, in the individual soul, or in the Church, becomes a cause of trial.

The Strivings of Nature and Grace (ver. 22). Cp. Gal. v. 17; Rom. vii. 22, 23.

Evil and good mingled in the Church. I Cor. i. 10, 11; 2 Tim. iii. 8; S. Matt. xiii. 30; xxv. 34, 41.

N.B.—These strivings not felt, until the individual soul, or the Church, begins to be 'fruitful in good works.'

Dependence upon God in Trouble (ver. 22).

'Went to enquire of the Lord.'

Either indirectly, through Abraham, who was yet alive (cp. xxi. 5, and xxv. 7, 26), Melchizedek, or Shem.

Or directly of GOD at the family Altar.

Cp. 2 Kings xix. 2, 14; I Sam. xxiii. 2; 2 Sam. v. 19, 23; Rom. vii. 24, 25; Acts iv. 24, 31; xv. 6, 28.

The final Triumph of Grace assured (ver. 23). Eph. ii. 8; 2 Cor. xii. 9; 1 Tim. i. 12-15; 1 Cor. xv. 10. Cp. S. Matt. xvi. 18.

The mother (Rebekah), and so probably Isaac, knew that God preferred Jacob to Esau.

Remember—i. Expect trials and temptations. Ecclus. ii. 1; Prov. iii. 11, 12; S. James i. 12.

> In times of difficulty and perplexity, 'seek the Lord.' Ps. xxxiv. 4; lxxiii. 15, 16.

Despised Privileges.

Read-Gen. xxv. 27, etc.: Text-1 Cor. vi. 19, 20.

The Two Brothers—Esau, Jacob. Their Modes of Life.

Esau-a wandering hunter-careless.

Jacob-staying at home-quiet-GoD-fearing.

Favourites at Home.

Father's favourite-Esau-for carnal reasons (ver. 28).

Mother's favourite—Jacob—for higher reasons—she remembered the Divine promise. Cp. S. Luke ii. 19.

The Privileges of the First-born.

Succession to the place of the father.
Claim to the father's benediction.
Double portion of father's goods.
Domestic priesthood.

Cp. Heb. i. 2; Rom. viii. 16, 17; Gal. iv. 7. In the family of Abraham, additional blessings.

Right to the promised inheritance of Canaan.

Covenant with Jehovah.

Ancestor of the Messiah.

The Trial. Cp. S. Matt. iv. 1.

Esau—hungry and faint. Cp. S. Matt. iv. 2.

Lacking in self-denial, patience,

faith and trust in GOD, realization of the value of the privileges and blessing in this life, and in the life after death.

Cp. 1 S. Pet. i. 4; 1 Cor. xv. 19.

Heb. ii. 18.

Contrast the Conduct and Character of Jacob.

Intense desire for the great blessing.

Cp. S. Luke x. 41, 42; Phil. iii. 13, 14.

Ready to give up all for it, if only he may gain it.

Cp. Phil. iii. 8; S. Matt. xiii. 46; Rom. viii. 13.

N.B.—These 'lentiles' were not ordinarily caten; there appears to have been a 'famine' at the time (xxvi. 1); see also 2 Kings iv. 38-42.

Not yet learnt to wait God's time and way of gaining it, but gains it by his brother's weakness (ver. 31). Cp. Rom. viii. 25.

Remember-i. The birthright of the baptized. Gal. iii. 27.

- Bear present pain rather than do wrong. 1 S. Pet. iii. 17.
- iii. Wait patiently for GoD's time and way. Rom.

Collect, 1 S. in Lent. Hymn, 446 or 92.

Chap. xxvi. Isaac in the Philistines' land, through famine, meets with a trial similar to Abraham. Gen. xii. (p. 32).

According to the view taken of Abraham's act, we shall consider that Isaac imitated his father's trust in GoD, or his father's weakness.

Isaac restored the wells which his father digged (ver. 18).

Cp. Our B. Lord restoring the well of Living Water of H. Scripture to the woman of Samaria.

- Abraham made a covenant with an oath concerning a well, and called it Beersheba. Isaac renewed the covenant, and restored the name.
- N.B.—In the conformity of the life of Isaac to the life of Abraham, we may trace faint shadowings of the conformity of the Divine Son to the Father. Cp. S. John v. 19, 20; Heb. i. 3.

Praying for a Blessing.

Read-Gen. xxvii.: Text-S. John xvi. 23, 24.

Isaac—head of the family; priest of the household.

'Old,' about 137 years, though he lived about 43 years longer, purposed blessing Esau, the first-born, and so transferring the Priesthood of the family, and all else involved.

For similar exercise of Patriarchal Priesthood, see ix. 26; xlviii. 13, etc.; xlix. 1-29.

Esau had shown his unworthiness of the privilege in several ways.

- i. Selling his Birthright (xxv. 34).
- ii. Polygamy.
- iii. Intermarrying with the race of Canaan.
- iv. Disregard of parents' wishes and feelings (xxvi. 35). And now delay in bringing what Isaac asks.
- God's Will about Jacob known to Rebekah, and so probably to Isaac (xxv. 23).
  - Isaac's conduct—strives to carry out his own will—in Esau (xxvii. 4); not from any high motive (xxv. 28; xxvii. 4).
    - Cp. Abraham praying to have his own will about Ishmael (xvii. 18); but in each case 1 Cor. xv. 50.
- Rebekah's Conduct—strives to carry out God's will (xxv. 23); but not content to wait God's time, and do it in God's way; though her act was overruled by GoD to His glory. Rom. iii. 7, 8.
  - (1) in carrying out GoD's purpose about Jacob.
  - (2) in setting forth a wonderful type.
- Jacob's Conduct—consents to Rebekah's plan—contrary to the promptings from within—impatient to receive the blessing and all its privileges.

The Clothing of Jacob.

- (1) The robes of Esau—not ordinary clothes, but the robes worn by the eldest son, as heir of the Patriarchal Priesthood.
  - They had a fragrant smell of sweet perfume (incense? cp. n. on xxv. 21). Ps. xlv. 9; Cant. iv. 11.
- (2) The skins of the goats.
  - The hair of Syrian goats long, black, and soft. Cp. Cant. iv. 1.
  - Goat-type of sin. S. Matt. xxv. 33, 41.
    - Cp. the 'likeness of sinful flesh' in which Christ appeared. Rom. viii. 3.
  - The skins not part of Jacob, but only laid on him.
    - So Christ 'bare our sins,' yet Himself 'without sin.' 1 S. Pet. ii. 24; 2 Cor. v. 21; Heb. iv. 15.

In the Presence of the Father.

'I am Esau' (ver. 19)—probably justified to his own conscience by the sale of the Birthright by Esau.

But cp. Christ. Col. i. 15; Rom. viii, 29.

N.B.—The blindness of Isaac (ver. 1), by which he was prevented from seeing Jacob taking the place of Esau, was God's act.

The Blessing of Jacob—'a proclamation of Christ to all nations.'
(S. Aug.)

The Field—'the world (cp. S. Matt. xiii. 38), filled with the odour of Christ's Name.'

The Dew of Heaven-'showers of Divine words.'

The Fatness of the Earth—' the gathering together of the peoples.'

The Plenty of Corn and Wine—'the multitude that gathers Bread and Wine in the Sacrament of His Body and Blood.' (S. Aug.)

The Blessing Confirmed—after Jacob's act discovered (ver. 33).

Isaac trembled exceedingly at the conflict of his will with GoD's will.

Acknowledges GoD's will in the matter, and Confirms the blessing.

Who would not rather have expected the curse of an angry man here, if these things had been done in an earthly manner, and not by inspiration from above? Oh things done, yet done prophetically; on earth, yet celestially; by men, yet divinely!' (S. Aug.)

Esau's Repentance—expressed in words and acts—'great and bitter cry' (ver. 34), and 'tears.' Heb. xii. 17.

Yet not a valid repentance—for (1) it was too late; and

(2) not sincere, for

He sorrowed because he had lost the blessing; not because he had sold the Birthright (ver. 34).

He still claimed the position, etc. of the first-born, and so tried to conceal his sin of selling the Birthright (ver. 32).

He blamed others instead of himself (ver. 36).

He cherished an unforgiving and bitter spirit against his brother (ver. 41).

The Mother's Sufferings—the loss of the favourite son, whom she had advised to act in this way (ver. 43, etc.).

Jacob's Sufferings—separation from home and family; living for many years in a strange land.

This mysterious act has a fourfold application.

- Christ putting on human nature—' the likeness of sinful flesh'—and so coming before the Eternal Father.
- ii. The younger son—the Christian Church, 'the Body of Christ'—taking the place and the blessing of the elder brother—the Jewish Church.
- iii. The individual Christian, who has 'put on Christ' (Gal. iii. 27), and comes before the Father in prayer; Who vouchsafes to be like Isaac—'the voice is Jacob's voice,' but 'the Hands are the Hands of the First-born' (marked with the toil of the world's redemption).
- iv. The spiritual man putting on the likeness of the man of the world, in order to gain his ends, and encouraged by Mother Church.
- Remember—i. Repentance does us no good if it is not sincere.
  2 Cor. vii. 9, 10.
  - Never do or say anything evil that good may come. Rom. iii. 7, 8.
  - iii. When we pray, we are accepted not for ourselves, but 'in the Beloved.' Eph. i. 6; ii. 18; S. John xiv. 6.
  - Collect, 5 Coll. at end of H. Communion Office—'Almighty God, the Fountain of all Wisdom,' etc. Hymn, 201.

A Vision of the Incarnation.

Read-Gen. xxviii.: Text-S. John i. 51.

Isaac, satisfied that the blessing is intended by GOD for Jacob, sends for him, gives him the blessing promised to Abraham, makes him heir of the promises—temporal—spiritual, and sends him forth to find a Bride for himself.

Abraham had sent his servant to take a Bride for his son Isaac. Isaac sends his son to take a Bride for himself.

These represent the two ways in which the faithful are gathered into the Church.

- (1) The Mission of the Son.
- (2) The Mission of His Ministers.

Hence the life of Jacob taken as foreshadowing the ministerial life of Christ as exile, pilgrim, shepherd, servant.

The departure of Jacob for the life of Service.

The opposition of Esau overruled for good—Jacob, through fear, is obliged to leave the Promised Land for a time; but he returns after some years of service, bringing others with him. Ps. cxxvi. 7.

The Fugitive in the Wilderness.

Cp. Christ at the beginning of His ministry. S. Mark i. 13; S. Matt. viii. 20.

Encouragement by the Way (ver. 12, etc.). Cp. S. Matt. iv. 11.

The Vision of the Ladder joining earth and heaven.

the Angels ascending and descending on it.

The meaning of the Vision.

(1) A lesson about the Incarnation.

Jacob 'found God.' Hos. xii. 4, 5.

The Ladder represented Human Nature touched earth, Christ, Who by His Divine Nature touched heaven; thus joining heaven and earth together, Eph. i. 10; and making a 'way' from earth to heaven. S. John xiv. 6; Acts iv. 12; Eph. ii. 18; I Tim. ii. 5.

(2) A lesson about Angels.

They had wings and could fly,

yet they ascended and descended 'on it.'

Teaching—i. That the ministry of Angels is consequent on the Incarnation.

- ii. That our Communion with them is through Christ.
- That they minister to Christ in us, and to us as members of Christ. Gal. iii. 27; I Cor. vi. 15; Heb. i. 14.
- iv. That though other 'ways' may seem open to us, none is safe but the way of obedience.
- N.B.—The ministry of Angels in connection with the Incarnate Life of our B. Lord.

```
All the chief events of His Life—with scarcely one exception—have Angels mentioned in connection with them.
```

e.g. the Incarnation. S. Luke i. 26, etc. Death. S. Mark xvi. 5.

Nativity. S. Luke ii. 9, etc. Resurrection. S. Matt.

The Place of the Vision—Bethel—the 'House of God.'

The Renewal of the Covenant (vers. 13, 14).

The Divine Presence promised (ver. 15).

The Effects of the Vision on Jacob—show the religious training he had received at home.

godly fear (ver. 17).
devotion and worship (ver. 18).
dependence upon GOD (ver. 20).
contentment and simplicity (ver. 20).
1 Tim. vi. 8.
almsgiving—tithes (ver. 22).

The Stone set up and anointed.

Christ, the Divine Jacob, slept on the Cross, and rested His Head in death on the Stone of the Grave. (S. Luke xxiii. 53.) He rose early in the morning from His sleep of death (S. Luke xxiv. 1, 2), and set up His Church to be the 'pillar and ground of the Truth' (1 Tim. iii. 15), and poured on it the oil of the Holy Spirit. Eph. iv. 8; Acts ii. 33. Hence S. John says that we, as 'members of Christ,' have 'an Unction from the Holy One.' 1 S. John ii. 20.

Remember-

- i. Christ—God and Man—is 'the Way' to Heaven. S. John xiv. 6.

  Keep stedfastly in 'the Way' of God's appointing.

  S. John xv. 4.
- ii. Climbing the Ladder-involves

Effort, Steadiness, Phil. ii. 12. more danger of falling. the greater the fall.

iii. The company and help of Angels.

'By the Mystery of Thy Holy Incarnation, Good Lord, deliver us.'

Collect, S. Michael and all Angels.

Hymn, 335 or 424.

Serbing for a Bride,

Read-Gen. xxix. 1-31: Text-Eph. v. 25.

Jacob goes forth on his mission to seek a wife, full of joy and confidence, because of the Voice of GOD (cp. S. Matt. iii. 16), and the Vision of Angels. Cp. S. Matt. iv. 11.

Cp. also Acts iv. 31; v. 41.

Finding the Bride (ver. 9).

Rachel—a Shepherdess. Cp. the description of the Spouse, Cant. i. 7, 8.

The Place of Meeting—a well (ver. 2).

Wells of Scripture scenes of joyful events. Gen. xxiv. 16; Ex. ii. 16, etc.; S. John iv. 7, etc.

The rolling away the Stone (ver. 10).

Typ. the work of Christ (the Good Shepherd), and the Shepherds of His Flock, rolling the stone away from the well of H. Scrip., and so opening up its mysteries for the spiritual refreshing of the Flock of Christ. Isa. xii. 3; 1 S. Pet. v. 2.

Hospitality (ver. 13). 1 S. Pet. iv. 9.

The long Service for Rachel—the beloved (vers. 18, 20). Hos. xii. 12. Cp. Christ taking 'the form of a Servant' (Phil. ii. 7) for 33 years, and esp. in His ministerial Life (S. Matt. xx. 28), and becoming a 'Shepherd' (S. John x. 2, 11, 14; 1 S. Pet. ii. 25) for the Church's sake.

In the East, gifts were given as a price for a wife (ver. 18); see xxiv. 22, 53; and cp. 'purchased,' Acts xx. 28.

The Marriage with Rachel (ver. 21).

The substitution of Leah permitted by GoD.

Jacob, notwithstanding his marriage with Leah, took Rachel.

This was contrary to God's Law about Polygamy. S. Matt.

xix. 3, 4.

Yet this act of Jacob is used by GoD to represent a great mystery.

The Mystery of the Double Marriage.

Leah=tender-eyed, weak-eyed-typ. the Jewish People and Synagogue;

the Jewish Church had not a clear vision of Christ.

Rachel typ. the Christian Church in her beauty, the one predestined Spouse of Christ. Cant. vi. 9.

'Leah the elder prefigured the blindness of the Synagogue, Rachel the beauty of the Church.' (S. Jerome.)

The Rewards of Service—Leah. Rachel. Cp. Phil. ii. 9; Eph. i. 22, 23.

Hymn, 92 or 181.

'Mith the Transgressors.'

Read-Gen. xl.: Text-S. Mark xv. 27, 28.

Joseph in Prison—double type.

- (1) In his suffering imprisonment—typ. Jesus on the Cross, for a time in the power of Satan.
- (2) In his temporary withdrawal from the world—typ. Jesus in the place of departed spirits.
- (1) Joseph in Prison—typ. Jesus on the Cross.

Allowed to suffer—'the Just for the unjust.' Cp. S. Matt. xxvii. 43.

An additional humiliation—the companion of malefactors (vers. 2, 3).

Cp. Jesus between two thieves. S. Luke xxiii. 32, 33.

The loving sympathy of Joseph—'s serving them' (ver. 4).

revealing GOD's Will to them (ver. 12).

Cp. JESUS ministering to the thief on the Cross.
revealing to him the hidden things of GoD.
S. Luke xxiii. 43.

The result of the humiliation—the restoration of one of the malefactors.

Cp. the result of Calvary—one thief saved.

(2) Joseph in Prison temporarily withdrawn from the world—typ. Jesus in the place of departed spirits.

His companions—disobedient servants. Cp. 'which sometime were disobedient.' 1 S. Pet. iii. 20.

His work—temporarily withdrawn from the world, yet still showing love, in

i. care for his companions in prison.

ii. revealing to them the Will of God.

Cp. JESUS temporarily withdrawn from the world.

'put to death in the flesh,' but alive in His Soul.

He 'went and preached to the spirits in prison.' 1 S. Pet. iii. 18, 19.

The time of his imprisonment—three years. See xl. 4, and xli. 1.

Cp. JESUS, three days in the grave. S. Luke xxiv. 36.

The results of His preaching (vers. 13, 21).

Cp. S. Luke iv. 8. 'Deliverance to the captives.' Zech. ix. 11.

Remember--i. Among bad companions, try to do them good. Cp. S. Luke xxiii. 34.

Do not be ungrateful for kindness (ver. 23). Eph.
 v. 20; S. Luke xvii. 17, 18.

iii. The state of the departed a state of consciousness. The disembodied Soul of JESUS went and preached to other souls, which could listen to Him. Cp. S. Luke xvi. 23-26.

'By Thy precious Death and Burial, Good Lord, deliver us.' Collect, Easter Evc.

'Highly Exalted.'

Read-Gen. xli. 1-53: Text-Phil. ii. 9, 10.

Joseph in Prison three years (ver. 1, and xl. 4). Cp. JESUS in the grave three days.

THE RESURRECTION.

Loosed out of Prison—(1) By virtue of the power in him of interpreting dreams (vers. 12, 13). .

(2) By the power of the King (ver. 14).

N.B.—JESUS is described in Scrip. as—

- (1) Rising by His Own Divine Power. S. John ii. 19, 21; v. 21; S. Matt. xxviii. 6; and the words of the Creed, 'the third day He rose again,' etc.
- (2) Raised by the Father. Acts ii. 24, 32; xiii. 30; Ps. cxlvi. 7; Eph. i. 20.

For the two combined, see Acts x. 40, 41.

The Prison Dress changed (ver. 14). Cp. the grave-clothes of JESUS left behind. S. John xx. 6, 7.

His first Work after his Deliverance—'Speaking of the things pertaining to the Kingdom' (vers. 33-37). Cp. the works of the 40 days. Acts i. 3.

THE ASCENSION.

- 'All Power given unto Him' (ver. 40). Cp. S. John iii. 35; S. Matt. xxviii. 18.
- 'He is excepted which did put all things under Him' (ver. 40). Cp. 1 Cor. xv. 27.
- Judgment committed to Him (ver. 40). Cp. S. John v. 22, 26, 27; S. Matt. xi. 27.
- 'Head over all things' (ver. 41). Cp. Eph. i. 22; Acts ii. 36.
- 'On the right hand of the Majesty.' Cp. Heb. i. 3; Eph. i. 20.
- The Royal Robes (ver. 42). Cp. the description of JESUS, Rev. i. 13; xix. 11-14.
- The Royal Chariot (ver. 43). Cp. Ps. civ. 3.
- 'Every knee shall bow' (ver. 43). Cp. Phil. ii. 10.
- A new Name (ver. 45)=(1) Saviour of the world, or Cp. Phil. ii. 9;
  (2) Revealer of Secrets. Rev. xix. 12.
- The Marriage of the Buler (ver. 45) with the daughter of an Egyptian priest.
  - Typ. the Christianizing of the heathen world, and its espousal to Christ, as His Bride, the Church, after His Ascension. Ps. ii. 8; xlv. 11, 12; Rev. xix. 7.
  - N.B.—The age of Joseph when he stood before Pharaoh, 30 years (ver. 46). Cp. JESUS, 30 years old when He began His public ministry, and received the Divine approval. S. Luke iii. 22, 23.
  - Remember-i. To reverence the Name of JESUS.
    - ii. We have already been made partakers of His Resurrection in Holy Baptism. Col. ii. 12.
    - iii. The further exaltation—the share in His Ascension—in store for us as suffering members of His Body. 2 Tim. ii. 12.
    - 'By Thy glorious Resurrection and Ascension, Good Lord, deliver us.'

Collect, S. a. Ascension Day.

Hymn, 144.

Chaps. xlii., xliv., xlv. The gradual steps by which the brethren are brought to a sense of their sin of cruelty to their brother, and their recognition of him in his authority as Ruler of Egypt.

'Leadings to Repentance.'

Read-Gen. xli. 53 and xlii.: Text-Rom. ii. 4.

The Famine—a special visitation of GoD—e.g. 2 Kings viii. 1; Ezek. xiv. 21; used as a means of awakening the consciences of the brethren.

The Brethren—typ. i. The Jewish nation.

 All mankind who 'have crucified the S. of GOD, and put Him to an open shame.' Heb. vi. 6.

The Cry for Help (xli. 55).

Only to be answered through Joseph—the mediator (xli. 55, 57; xlii. 6). Cp. 1 Tim. ii. 5; Acts ii. 33. JESUS invites the hungry to come to Him. Isa. lv. 1.

The Father draws the Brethren to Joseph (xlii. 1, 2), so none can come to the true Joseph unless the Father Which sent Him draw him. S. John vi. 44.

The Brothers bow before Joseph—fulfilling (unconsciously) prophecy (xxxvii. 7, 8).

Joseph—(1) recognises his brethren (ver. 7).

- (2) remembers the dream (ver. 9).
- (3) desires to bring them to repentance.
- (4) makes himself strange to them.

So JESUS Christ tests the sincerity of those He loves, and desires to bring to Himself. e.g. S. Matt. xv. 22, 23; cp. Heb. xii. 6, 11; Rev. iii. 19.

The Trial of Joseph's Brethren by a similar way to their treatment of him. Wisdom xi. 16.

- t. False accusations (ver. 9)—to which they had exposed him.
- Imprisonment—three days (ver. 17). He was imprisoned three years.

- 3. The binding of Simeon before their eyes (ver. 24), to recall what they had done to Joseph. Cp. the preaching of Christ crucified to the Jews, who were 'pricked in their hearts.' Acts ii. 37.
- 4. A test of their sincerity.
  - (1) How had they dealt with Benjamin? (ver. 16).
  - (2) How would they deal with Benjamin? (ver. 4).
  - (3) Would they have pity on Simeon in bonds?

Result of their Troubles—first awakening of conscience (ver. 21).

No mention of GoD as yet.

The Love and Tender Care of Joseph for his brethren through all the trial shown (vers. 19, 25).

This helps to deepen their repentance, and leads them to think of GoD (ver. 28).

Remember—i. Forgive those who have wronged you, if you would be forgiven. S. Matt. vi. 12, 15.

- ii. Be kind to those who are unkind to you. S. Matt.
- iii. Let trials and troubles remind you of GoD and the sins of the past. Num. xxxii. 23.
  - 'From hardness of heart, Good Lord, deliver us.'
- N.B.—Tell some story of the sufferings of the Jews in the siege of Jerusalem, when GoD was endeavouring to lead them to repentance for the sin of the crucifixion.

Collect, Ash Wednesday.

Hymn, 249 or 226.

'Sorrowing to Repentance.'

Read-Gen. xlii.: Text-2 Cor. vii. 9.

After some time the Father once more draws the brethren to Joseph (vers. 1, 2).

Reuben, who had desired to save Joseph (xxxvii. 22),

Judah, who had pleaded for his life (xxxvii. 27), come forward to ask for the care of Benjamin (xlii. 37; xliii. 8).

Another Trial granted to The Brethren (ver. 11).

N.B.—Jacob has been brought to complete resignation to the will of God by continued trials,—in the loss of Rachel, Joseph, Benjamin.

The brethren know that it is useless coming to Joseph unless they can show that they are sincere (ver. 3), 'sorrowing after a godly manner.'

Some Essentials for 'a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing unto God.'
Phil. iv. 18.

- (1) Liberality (vers. 11, 15)—'they shall not appear before the Lord empty,' i.e. 'without a gift.' Deut. xvi. 16; Ps. xcvi. 8.
- (2) Honesty—shown by 'double money' (vers. 11, 15).
  2 Cor. viii. 21; Rom. xii. 17.
- (3) Sincerity—bringing Benjamin safely (vers. 13, 15).
- Their Sincerity seen by Joseph—who therefore prepares for bringing them into closer communion with himself (ver. 16); cp. Rev. iii. 20.
- Their Humility—shrinking from the honour (ver. 18; cp. S. Matt. viii. 8), and 'Prayer of humble access.'
- They 'open their Grief' to the 'Steward' of the house (ver. 19), and hear of Peace (ver. 23).

Cp. end of 1st exhortation in H. Communion Office. 2 Cor. v. 20; 1 Cor. iv. 1.

The Patriarchs (1) 'give presents and come into his courts' (ver. 26; Ps. xcvi. 8).

(2) 'bow down before him' (vers. 26, 28).

Fulfilling prophecy (Gen. xxxvii. 7).

Cp. S. Matt. ii. 11; and so some day more fully, Ps. lxxii. 10, 11.

(3) 'eat and drink with him.' Cp. Acts x. 40, 41.

Joseph's Knowledge of his Brethren (ver. 33). Cp. S. John x. 3, 14; also S. Matt. xiii. 54.

'Their eyes holden that they should not know him' at present. Cp. S. Luke xxiv. 16.

'The last first' (ver. 34; S. Matt. xx. 16).

A test of whether they had overcome the 'envy' which had caused their cruelty to himself (xxxvii. 4, 8, 11, 19).

Cp. the trial of the Apostles. S. Paul, of the tribe of Benjamin; last of the Apostles, but, by God's gifts of grace, first of all, yet no envy. I Cor. xv. 9, 10; Gal. ii. 9.

So also the Jews tried, by secing the Gentiles (the last) becoming the first. They failed under the trial, and were 'filled with envy.' e.g. Acts xiii. 45.

Remember-i. Be sincere with God. Eph. vi. 24.

ii. God sees and knows us, whether we realize His Presence or not. Ps. cxxxix. 1, 2; Prov. xv. 3.

Be willing to see others favoured above ourselves.
 James iii, 16; S. John iii. 30.

One last Trial for the Brethren-to try whether they had really conquered their envy:

they really loved Benjamin, their father's favourite;

they really loved their father;

and so were ready and fit for the full manifestation of Joseph.

The Cup hidden in Benjamin's Sack (ver. 2).

N.B.—Joseph did not practise the Egyptian and heathen custom of divining by means of cups, etc., but he used this for 'making trial' (see ver. 5, margin) of the brethren.

The Accusation of Dishonesty and Ingratitude (vers. 4, 5).

The Indignation of the Brethren—'clearing themselves' (ver. 7, etc.).

Cp. 2 Cor. vii. 11.

The Cup found in Benjamin's Sack (ver. 12).

An Opportunity of getting rid of Benjamin, if they desired it (ver. 10).

They refuse it, and return with him (ver. 13).

Their Grief on Benjamin's Account (ver. 13). Cp. 1 S. Pet. i. 5, 6.

N.B.—They do not accuse or blame Benjamin, but identify themselves with him.

In the Presence of Joseph.

Another offer of getting rid of Benjamin, if they desired (ver. 17).

Judah's supplication (ver. 18).

,, confession of their sin and deceit at home (ver. 28; xxxvii. 31, 32).

" love for his father.

They have stood the last trial, and proved themselves sincere.

Remember—i. Strive to conquer your besetting sin, whatever it is, that you may be ready for the manifestation of Christ. S. Matt. xxiv. 44.

ii. Pray for final perseverance. Eph. vi. 13; Phil. i. 6.
iii. Pray for the conversion of the Jews. 2 Cor. iii.
15, 16.

'Peace be unto You.'

Read-Gen. xlv.: Text-S. John xx. 19, and Rev. i. 7.

The time of trial and probation over, Joseph manifests himself to the brethren.

In this manifestation there is a threefold type:-

 i. (Already fulfilled.) The appearance of our B. Lord to the eleven Apostles after the Resurrection.

- ii. (Future.) The manifestation to the Jews, when the vail shall be taken away from their hearts. 2 Cor. iii. 15, 16.
- iii. (Future.) The manifestation to all at the Last Day. Rev. i. 7.
- M.B.—The present distress among the Jews (a spiritual famine) is a punishment for their conduct to the Divine Joseph; when they shall acknowledge their sin (Gen. xlii. 21), then JESUS will reveal Himself to them, 'the vail will be taken away' (2 Cor. iii. 15, 16), He will receive them into the 'Goshen' of His Church on earth, to be with Him (S. Matt. xxviii. 20). If they will not repent here, JESUS will be manifested at the last day for their final condemnation (Rev. i. 7).
- Made known unto his Brethren (vers. 1, 3). Cp. S. John xx. 19.
- Result of the Manifestation—the brethren troubled, terrified (see margin, ver. 3). Cp. S. Luke xxiv. 36, 37; Rev. i. 17.
- Words of Peace (ver. 5). Cp. S. Luke xxiv. 38, 39; S. John xx. 19; Rev. i. 17.
- He Excuses his Brethren (vers. 5, 8). Cp. our B. Lord's prayer for His murderers, S. Luke xxiii. 34; also S. Peter's plea for the Jews—'through ignorance ye did it,' Acts iii. 17, 18.
- The Sin overruled by God for good (ver. 7). Cp. S. John iii. 16; Acts iv. 11, 12.
- Their Brother's Power (vcr. 9). Cp. S. Matt. xxviii. 18; Rev. i. 18. His Care for Them—(1) that they may have his continual presence and support. Cp. S. Matt. xxviii. 20.
  - (2) that 'where he is, there they may be also' (ver. 10). Cp. S. John xiv. 3; Rev. vii. 14, etc.

- The Joy in the King's House (vcr. 16). Cp. S. Luke xv. 7, 10; Rcv. xi. 15-18.
- The Promise of Joseph Confirmed by the King (ver. 18). Cp. S. John v. 19.
- The Brethren sent forth to carry the 'good tidings,'—'Joseph is yet alive' (vers. 9, 17, 18).
  - Cp. the Apostles sent forth to preach 'the Gospel' (S. Mark xvi. 15),
    - the chief doctrine of which is the Resurrection. Acts i. 21, 22; ii. 24; iv. 33.

Gifts for the Brethren (vers. 21-24). Cp. Acts i. 4, 5.

Wagons-chariots-probably royal carriages of Egypt.

For (1) assuring Jacob, etc.

(2) bringing Jacob, etc.

Typ. all the spiritual gifts which our glorified Lord gives us, but especially the Sacraments. Cp. Acts ii. 33. Also 'Sacraments—ordained by Christ, as a means whereby we receive the Same (Christ), and a pledge to assure us thereof.' (Ch. Cat.)

Exhortations to Peace and Unity (ver. 24). Cp. S. John xiv. 27; xvii. 20, 21.

The Reception of the 'Good Tidings'—(1) unbelief (ver. 26). Cp. S. Luke xxiv. 11.

(2) thankful joy (vers. 27, 28). Cp. Acts ii. 41.

Remember-i. Think of the Risen JESUS every Sunday.

ii. Use diligently and thankfully the Sacraments.

iii. Be ready for the manifestation at the Last Day. S. Matt. xxv. 13.

Collect, I S. a. Easter. Hymn, 134 or 140.

'Nunc Dimittis.'

Read-Gen. xlvi.: Text-S. Luke ii, 29, 30.

The Journey of Jacob into Egypt (ver. 1).

He sacrifices at Beersheba, where altars had been built by Abraham, Gen. xxi. 33; Isaac, Gen. xxvi. 23, 25.

Encouragements by the Way.—'Visions of the night' (ver. 2).

- (1) Fear not to go, etc., though—i. Isaac was forbidden (xxvi. 2), ii. thou art aged.
- (2) I will there make of thee a great nation.

Renewal of promise made to Abraham (xii. 2).

(3) I will go down with thee.

Renewal of promise made to Isaac (xxviii. 15).

(4) I will bring thee up again.

Renewal of promise made to Abraham (xv. 16).

(5) Joseph shall put his hand, etc., i.e. shall close thine eyes in death.

Cp. the promise to the aged seer, S. Luke ii. 26.

scob carried to Joseph by his Sons (ver. 5).

Cp. the Jews carried by their own children (SS. Peter, Paul, John) to Christ the true Joseph. (S. Ambrose.)

he Number which came into Egypt—70 (ver. 27). For the marvellous increase of Israel in Goshen, see Ex. xii. 37; Num. i. 46; Deut. x. 32.

Cp. the rapid increase of the Church of Christ. Acts ii. 41; iv. 4; xxi. 20.

adah sent before (ver. 28), who had advised his brethren to sell Joseph into Egypt—met by Joseph (ver. 29).

Typ. the future coming of the Jews to the true Joseph, Whom they once rejected and sold, but Who will go forth to meet them, and welcome them to Himself. (S. Ambrose.)

he Meeting of Israel and Joseph (vers. 29, 30).

Cp. Simeon and JESUS. S. Luke ii. 28-31.

he Humility of Joseph—not disguising from Pharaoh the lowly character of his family (ver. 32).

Cp. the lowly family of JESUS. S. Matt. xiii. 55.

Every Shepherd an Abomination to the Egyptians' (ver. 34), because they killed the animals which the Egyptians worshipped.

Cp. the case of the Good Shepherd of the Sheep, S. John x. 11.

And the Christian Shepherds, who, by their preaching, destroy the god whom this world worships. S. Matt. x. 5.

Remember—i. Trust the leadings of God. Ps. xxxvii. 5, 35.

ii. Wait patiently for promised blessings. Lam. iii. 25, 26.

iii. Do not be ashamed of your family if you are of lowly birth. S. James ii. 5.

iv. Be ready to be despised by the world for belonging to Christ. S. Matt. x. 22; v. 11.

Collect, 14 S. a. Trin., or 6 S. a. Trin. Hymn, 230 or 236.

'Bringing many Sons to Glory.'

Read-Gen. xlvii. 1-27: Text-Heb. ii. 10.

- Joseph (1) acts as Mediator for his brethren with the king (ver. 1).
  - (2) presents his brethren to the king (ver. 2).
  - (3) settles them in Goshen (ver. 6).
  - Typ. the work of JESUS at the right Hand of the Father-
    - (1) acting as the Mediator. 1 Tim. ii. 5.
    - (2) bringing His brethren, made sons of GOD in Him, to glory. Heb. ii. 10; Eph. ii. 18.
    - (3) settling them in their inheritance—
      - (1) in the Church on earth,
      - (2) in heaven. S. John xiv. 3
- Joseph brings in his aged father Jacob (ver. 7).
  - Typ. Jesus bringing in the Jewish nation, aged and weary, to God. (S. Ambrose.)
- Jacob blesses Pharaoh (ver. 10).
  - N.B.—1. The faith of Jacob, realizing his dignity as—heir of the promise;
    ancestor of JESUS, the 'King of kings.'
    - 2. The humility of Pharaoh. Heb. vii. 7.

Joseph supplies Food during the famine-

- 1. to all his brethren;
- 2. to all the Egyptians who would come to him for it.
- Typ. JESUS, (1) in the spiritual famine in this life (Amos viii. 11), feeding His brethren, and all who will come to Him (cp. S. John v. 40), by the Ministry of His Church, with the Food of His Word and Sacraments.
  - (2) in the life eternal, so satisfying His people with Himself, that they hunger no more, etc. (Rev. vii. 16, 17).
- The Action of Joseph (the Saviour, ver.. 25) buying the people for the king, and so laying them under an obligation to work henceforward for him.
  - Typ. Jesus (the Saviour) redeeming us (i.e. buying us back) to God (Rev. v. 9) by His Blood (Tit. iii. 5), and so laying us under an obligation to work for God. 1 Cor. vi. 20; iii. 9.

- N.B.—Joseph bought everything for the king, not for his own glory. So cp. JESUS. S. John viii. 50.
- Remember—i. Our Mediator, JESUS, will make us sharers in His glory. S. John xvii. 24.
  - ii. If we suffer in the spiritual famine, it is our own fault. S. John v. 40.
  - iii. Our duty to 'bring forth fruit unto God.' Rom. vii. 4.

Collect, 25 S. a. Trin., or S. a. Ascension Day. Hymn, 254 or 112.

'The Adoption of Sons.'

Read-Gen. xlvii. 28 and xlviii.: Text-Eph. i. 3, 5.

Jacob prepares for Death, and gives instructions about his burial in Canaan (with Abraham and Isaac, ver. 30).

An act of faith in God's promise-

- (1) that his descendants would come again into Canaan in God's own time.
- (2) that the Promised Seed—Christ—would be born there.

The instruction of Jacob obeyed by Joseph (l. 5, 6).

The act of faith ,, imitated ,, (l. 24).

- 'Israel bowed himself upon the bed's head' (ver. 31).
  - Cp. 'He worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.' Heb. xi. 21.

    He bowed to Joseph as Ruler of Egypt, fulfilling Gen.

    xxxviii. 10.
  - or, He bowed his head in adoration of God, for His mercy in granting him his prayer through Joseph.
- Jacob on his Bed—weaker in body, but stronger in spiritual power. 2 Cor. iv. 6.
- So cp. David rousing himself for one last effort. I Chron. xxviii. Jacob (1) recounts God's blessings (vers. 3, 4).
  - (2) adopts Joseph's sons, born from an Egyptian wife, as his own (ver. 5).

So children of Christ by the Gentile Church are adopted as God's children (Eph. i. 5).

(3) blesses Joseph's children (ver. 9, etc.).

He puts the Younger before the Elder—acting under the guidance of God (vers. 14, 17-20), as had been done in his own case (xxxvii. 27).

- A Prophetic Act—(1) He foresaw the future superiority of Ephraim. Cp. Num. i. 33, 35; Deut. xxxiii. 17.
  - (2) He foreshadowed the future preference of the Gentile to the Jew. (S. Aug.)
- 'He . . . laid his Hand on Ephraim's Head,' etc. (ver. 14).

The use of the outward and visible sign of laying on of hands for conveying the inward and spiritual grace of blessing.

Cp. Num. xxvii. 18, 22, 23; Deut. xxxiv. 9; Acts viii. 17, 18; xix. 6; 2 Tim. i. 6.

The Hands Crossed (vers. 13, 14), foreshadowing the Cross of Jesus, through Whose Death and Passion all blessings derive their virtue.

The Blessing to the Lads given in and through Joseph—'He blessed Joseph and said, God . . . bless the lads' (vers. 15, 16). So 'God the Father has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in Christ.' Eph. i. 3.

The Triple Benediction—I. GOD, before Whom, etc.

- 2. The GOD Which fed me.
- 3. The Angel Which redeemed me.

An intimation of the B. Trinity. Cp. Num. vi. 23, etc. Preparatory to the Gospel Benediction. 2 Cor. xiii. 14. Remember—i. Prepare for death beforehand—while you can. S. Luke xii. 40.

- ii. The plain teaching throughout H. Scripture of GOD's use of outward means for the conveyance of inward grace.
  - So cp. Gen. Thanksgiving, 'We bless Thee . . . above all . . . for the means of grace.'
- iii. The threefold Benediction which was put upon us ('In the Name of the Father,' etc.), when we were signed with the sign of the Cross in H. Baptism (S. Matt. xxviii. 19), and adopted as the children of GOD in JESUS Christ. Eph. i. 5.

Collect, Christmas Day, or Coll. after Baptism—'We yield Thee hearty thanks,' etc.

Hymn, 192.

The Parting Benediction.

Read-Gen. xlix.: Text-S. Luke xxiv. 50, 51.

Solemn act of Jacob at the close of his life.

Gathered the twelve Patriarchs to him-

- (1) to hear his words (vers. 1, 2) and commands (ver. 33).
- (2) to receive his blessing (ver. 28).

Typ. the solemn act of JESUS before His Ascension.

He gathered His Apostles to Him-

- (1) to hear His words and commands. Acts i. 4.
- (2) to receive His blessing. S. Luke xxiv. 51.

These last words of Jacob a Prophecy—extending to 'the last days,' i.e. the days of the Messiah and His Church, e.g. Heb. i. 2.

Cp. JESUS speaking to His Apostles of the things pertaining to the Kingdom of God, i.e. the Church. Acts i. 3.

Hence Jacob's words have a double application-

- (1) Literal—to the twelve tribes of Israel.
- (2) Spiritual, mystical—to the Church of Christ built on twelve foundations, viz. the twelve Apostles of the Lamb. Rev. xxi. 14.

They contain warnings, instruction, and encouragement for the Church under varying circumstances and times.

Reuben, as first-born, entitled to-Priesthood.

Kingdom.

Blessing of First-born.

These, for Reuben's sin (xxv. 22), transferred to Judah.

Joseph.

Warning against asserting any power in such a way as to take the place of Christ.

N.B.—S. Peter's care not to claim any power for himself. Acts iii. 12.

Contr. the claims of the Successors of S. Peter at Rome, e.g. Infallibility. 2 Thess. ii. 4.

Simeon and Levi associated by Jacob, who condemns their united act of cruelty to the Shechemites (xxxiv. 26).

Their punishment, through the zeal of Levi (Ex. xxxii. 26-29), was overruled for good; and the Simeonites, intermingled with Judah (Josh. xix. 1), and the Levites, scattered through the Tribes, became the Teachers of God's people (Deut. xxxiii. 10).

'From Simeon came the Scribes, and from Levi the Priests.' S. Hippolytus.

Typ. the Chief Priests and Scribes, who, under the guise of zeal for the Law, cruelly slew JESUS Christ.

As a punishment, they are now scattered through the world.

Judah—'He whom thy brethren shall praise,' fulfilled in David, e.g. 1 Sam. xviii. 7.

Cp. David's words of Christ. Ps. lxxii. 15.

'Thy hand shall be on the neck of thine enemies,' fulfilled in victories of David, etc.

Typ. the triumphs of Christ. Ps. cx. 1; 1 Cor. xv. 25. 'Thy father's children shall bow down before thee,' fulfilled in David. 2 Sam. v. 1-4.

Typ. Christ. Ps. lxxii. 11; Phil. ii. 10.

'Judah is a lion's whelp.' The standard of the tribe of Judah was a lion.

Typ. Christ. See Rev. v. 5.

'From the prey,' etc.

Typ. Christ rising victoriously from death.

'He stooped,' etc.

Typ. the humiliation and exaltation of Christ. Ps. lxviii. 18; Phil. ii. 8, 9.

'The sceptre,' etc.

Shiloh understood by all ancient writers of the Messiah, and 'of His Kingdom there shall be no end.' S. Luke i. 32, 33.

'Unto Him shall the gathering,' etc.

Cp. S. John xii. 32; xi. 51, 52.

'Binding His foal,' etc.

Cp. the entry of Christ into Jerusalem. S. Matt. xxi. 5-12; also Rev. xix. 11-14.

Zabulon and Issachar.

These two tribes represent—(1) the life of commerce.

(2) the " agriculture.

The two states of the world with which the Church has to do; so Christ taught from ships at Capernaum in Zabulon, S. Luke v. 3, and 'went about all the cities and villages teaching,' S. Matt. ix. 35.

Dan—a judge—yet a serpent, i.e. an agent of Satan. Gen. iii. 1; Rev. xii. 9.

Dan introduced idolatry into the ancient Church of GoD settled in Canaan. Judg. xviii. 1-31.

Hence the name of Dan omitted from the Tribes. Rev. vii. 4. 'Without are idolaters.' Rev. xxii. 15.

Cp. the 'Serpent in the way' of Christ, endeavouring to turn aside to himself the worship due to God. S. Matt. iv. 9.

Warning to the Church, not to allow any perversion of that worship and honour due to GOD only. Rev. xxii. 8.

Gad—typ. the Church as a spiritual army (Cant. vi. 4) engaged in warfare, sometimes seeming to be vanquished, but the pledge of final victory from Christ. S. Matt. xvi. 18.

Asher—typ. the blessings which follow on victorious conflict. Cp. Rev. ii. 17.

Naphtali—typ. the love of Christ, and His goodly words of comfort to the Church.

Joseph—lit. allusion to Ephraim, and the temporal kingdom of Israel; typ. the Kingdom of Christ.

'A fruitful Bough,' type of Christ, the Branch. Jer. xxiii. 5. the true Vine. S. John xv. 1-5.

The sufferings of Joseph as type of Christ drawn out above.

The Shepherd, type of the Good Shepherd. S. John x. 14. The Stone. ... Chief Corner-Stone. Acts iv. 11.

Penjamin-lit. fulfilled in Saul. 1 Sam. xi. 6; xiv. 47.

Typ. S. Paul of tribe Benjamin, who at first 'ravened as a wolf' against the Church (Acts xxvi. 11), but afterwards preached the Faith. Gal. i. 23.

The last Commands of Jacob—'Bury me with my fathers.'

An act of faith. (See note on xlvii. 29, 30.)

His Peaceful Death (ver. 33).

Remember—i. Jacob warns, instructs, and encourages us, as members of the Church. Apply his words to ourselves. S. Matt. xiii. 9.

ii. The commands of JESUS, given to His Church before His Ascension, are given to us. See that we carry them out. Rev. xxii. 14.

iii. The blessing of JESUS, given at His Ascension, may be ours through the channel of His Church and His Ministry. S. Matt. xxviii. 20; 2 Cor. xiii. 14. Collect, S. Simon and S. Jude. Hymn, 352.

'The Mourning of the Children of the Bride-chamber.'

Read-Gen. 1. 1-14: Text-S. Matt. ix. 15.

The Death and Burial of Jacob—typ. the taking away of the Divine Bridegroom foretold by our B. Lord—

i. In His Death and Burial.

ii. In His Ascension.

(For Jacob as type of the Divine Bridegroom, sec notes on Gen. xxix.)

I. IN HIS DEATH AND BURIAL.

Reverence for the Dead Body of Jacob shown by Joseph, etc.

1. Expressive of love and respect for Jacob.

2. , faith in the Resurrection.

Cp. the reverential love shown by Joseph of Arimathæa, etc. for the Body of JESUS. S. John xix. 38, 39.

The Body Embalmed. Cp. S. John xix. 40.

The Mourners—the twelve sons of Jacob.

Cp. the Apostles, Holy Women, etc.

The Obedience of Joseph, etc., to their father's word (ver. 5).

Cp. Joseph of Arimathæa fulfilling the word of God (spoken by Isaiah xxii. 16; liii. 9). S. Matt. xxvii. 60.

The Time of Mourning—(1) In Egypt 70 days. (The Egyptians mourned seventy-two days for a King.)

(2) At the Grave seven days. Cp. Ecclus. xxii. 11, 12.

II. IN HIS ASCENSION.

Cp. the Penitential Seasons of the Church and her Fasts, etc.

Also the longing of (1) the Church Militant. Tit. ii. 13;

Rev. xxii. 20; Prayer in Burial

Office, etc.

(2) the Church at rest. Rev. vi. 9, 10.

Remember—i. Reverence and care for the dead. Tobit i. 16, 17; ii. 3-9; Acts viii. 2; ix. 37.

 Obedience to the last commands of JESUS. S. Matt. xxvii. 20.

iii. Pray, and prepare for the coming of Christ. S. Matt. vi. 10; 2 S. Pet. iii. 11-15.

Collect, 'Almighty God, with Whom do live,' etc., Collect in Burial Office (adapted).

Hymn, 217.

'The Vail taken away.'

Read-Gen. l. 14, etc.: Text-2 Cor. iii. 15, 16.

The Brethren now see that 'the Father has given all things into the hand of his beloved Son' Joseph. S. John iii. 35.

They fear the consequences of Joseph's power to themselves, they come and humble themselves before Joseph, and confess with sorrow their past sin.

i. This in Part Fulfilled at Pentecost-

when the Jews heard that GoD had made that same JESUS, Whom they had crucified, both Lord and Christ (Acts ii. 36), they were pricked in their heart, confessed their sin, and pleaded for pardon. Acts ii. 37.

Joseph explains how God has overruled for Good their Sin—even 'to save much people.'

So cp. the explanation of what God accomplished through their sin in crucifying JESUS. Acts iii. 13-16; iv. 12.

The 'promise to them and to their children.' So cp. Acts ii. 38, 39; iii. 26.

ii. This to be Fulfilled Completely-

when the 'vail of unbelief shall be taken away' from the heart of the whole Jewish people, and they 'shall turn to the Lord.' 2 Cor. iii. 16.

Remember—Pray for the conversion of all unbelievers, and especially of the Jews.

Collect, 3 for Good Friday.

Hymn, 363.
